1 § 181-o. General powers and duties of the commissioner. The commis-
2 sioner shall develop and implement a New York craft beverage program.
3 The New York craft beverage council shall develop a marketing strategy
4 pursuant to this program that shall promote New York as a premiere
5 producer of high quality wines, spirits, ciders and craft brews.

6 § 181-p. New York craft beverage council. 1. (a) The commissioner, in 7 accordance with this program, shall cause to be developed a New York
8 craft beverage council to be tasked with branding, marketing and promot-
9 ing fine New York state wines, spirits, ciders and craft beverages. The 10 New York craft beverage council shall be managed by and its powers, 11 functions and duties shall be exercised through a board of directors.

12 (b) The initial board of directors shall consist of ten members: six 13 of which shall be appointed by the governor; two of which shall be 14 appointed by the temporary president of the senate; and two of which 15 shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly. Of the ten members, 16 one shall be an officer or owner of a winery, one shall be an officer or 17 owner of a distillery, one shall be an officer or owner of a microbrew-18 ery, one shall be an officer or owner of a liquor store, one shall be an 19 officer or owner of a beer distributor, one shall be an officer or owner
20 of a cidery, one shall be an officer or owner of a farm distillery, one 21 shall be an officer or owner of a brew pub, one shall be the owner or 22 officer of a restaurant licensed to sell fine New York wines, spirits, 23 ciders and craft brews, and one shall be a person familiar with the 24 advertising, promotion and marketing of commercial products. The direc-25 tors so appointed shall serve a term of three years, except that, of the 26 directors so appointed by the governor, temporary president of the 27 senate and speaker of the assembly, the owner or officer of a distil-
28 lery, the owner or officer of a beer distributor and the owner or offi-
29 cer of a restaurant shall serve for one year, the owner or officer of a
30 brewery, the owner or officer of a liquor store and the owner or officer
31 of a brew pub shall serve for two years, and the owner or officer of a 32 winery, the owner or officer of a cidery, the owner or officer of a farm 33 distillery and the person familiar with advertising, promotion and 34 marketing of commercial products shall serve for three years.

35 (c) The chair of the urban development corporation shall serve as 36 chair of the council.

37 (d) Membership will be defined as members in good standing per the 38 bylaws of the New York craft beverage council. Each member will contrib-
39 ute annual dues to the council to be determined by the board of direc-
40 tors.

41 (e) The executive director of the New York craft beverage council
42 shall have previous experience in marketing craft beverages, event plan-
43 ning and brand management and will be appointed by the board of direc-
44 tors, decided by a majority vote. The executive director will serve as 45 an "at will" employee at the discretion of the board of directors.

46 (f) If any vacancy other than by expiration of term occurs on the 47 board amongst those first appointed such vacancy shall be filled by 48 appointment for the unexpired term by the appointing authority initially 49 appointing such member. Upon expiration of the initial terms, successors
50 shall be elected by the remaining members of the board for a three year 51 term; such directors shall have the qualifications required of the 52 original directors.

53 Members shall continue as such until their successors have been duly 54 elected.

1 (g) Members of the board of directors shall serve without compen-
2 sation, but shall be reimbursed for actual expenses reasonably incurred
3 in the performance of their duties.

4 (h) The board shall meet four times annually at the call of the chair-
5 man or in his or her absence the vice chairman or on petition of any 6 three members. A majority of the members of the board then in office
7 shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business. The board 8 is encouraged to conduct its meetings in a manner which will ensure the 9 active participation of any person having an interest in the craft
10 beverage industry.

11 (i) The New York craft beverage council is charged with creating brand 12 recognition for fine New York wines, spirits, ciders and craft brews. In 13 doing so they shall work to market New York state labeled craft beverag-
14 es both within and outside of New York state with the goal of promoting 15 New York craft beverages.

16 (j) The New York craft beverage council shall, by one year following 17 the effective date of this article, submit a preliminary report to the 18 governor and the legislature with an assessment of marketing and 19 promotion strategies to implement this article.

20 2. (a) (i) Regional advisory boards shall be established, whose 21 members shall work with the New York craft beverage council. There shall 22 be five regional members of the advisory board for each region estab-
23 lished pursuant to this section. For each region, one regional member 24 shall be appointed by the governor, two regional members shall be 25 appointed by the temporary president of the senate, and two regional 26 members shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly. Regional 27 advisory board members shall have the qualifications required of the 28 board of directors.

29 (ii) Regional members shall not be considered to be members of the 30 council for purposes of participation in council meetings, except where 31 items relating specifically to that member's region are on the agenda of 32 a council meeting.

33 (b) For the purposes of this article, there shall be ten regions:

34 (i) Western New York, consisting of Allegany, Cattaraugus, Chautauqua,
35 Erie and Niagara counties;

51 Queens counties;

52 (x) Long Island, consisting of Nassau and Suffolk counties.

53 (c) Regional advisory board members shall serve without compensation, 54 and shall have their principal residence within the region for which 55 they are appointed. Such regional advisory board members may solicit 56 input from stakeholder interests within their region, including but not

1 limited to local governments, community organizations, chambers of 2 commerce, beverage distributors, wineries, distilleries, cideries,
3 microbreweries, restaurants, and consumers and shall transmit to the 4 council a report containing any recommendations specific to their region
5 one hundred eighty days following the effective date of this section.

6 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
