AN ACT to amend the general obligations law, in relation to requiring landlords to return security deposits within a reasonable time

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general obligations law is amended by adding a new 2 section 7-104 to read as follows:

3 § 7-104. Money deposited or advanced for use or rental of any dwell-
4 ing; retention. 1. Definitions. For the purpose of this section:

5 (a) The term "security deposit" shall mean any advance or deposit of 6 money that is subject to the provisions of section 7-103 of this title,
7 and the primary function of which is to secure the performance of a
8 rental agreement for the use or rental of any dwelling or any part ther-9 eof.

10 (b) The term "landlord" shall mean any person who receives payment
11 from a tenant for the rental or use of any dwelling or any portion ther-12 eof and has received a security deposit in connection with such rental.

13 (c) The term "tenant" shall mean any person who occupies any dwelling 14 or any portion thereof for which he or she pays rent and who, in 15 connection with such rental, has furnished a security deposit.

16 2. No security deposit for a dwelling shall exceed more than one 17 month's rent.

18 3. A month prior to the expiration of the lease, the landlord shall 19 notify all tenants that they have the option to conduct a pre-exit walk-20 through with the landlord to document any and all damages, as well as a 21 post-exit walk-through with the landlord to document any damages caused 22 while moving out that may impact the value of the security deposit. The 23 post-exit walk-through cannot be after the last day of the lease.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 4. A landlord shall, within twenty-one days of the end of the lease,
2 return to the tenant the full security deposit and any accrued interest
3 to which the tenant is entitled less any amount retained by the landlord
4 under subdivision five of this section.

5 5. (a) A landlord may retain all or a part of a security deposit for 6 nonpayment of rent, use and occupancy, unjustifiable abandonment of the 7 premises prior to the expiration of the lease term, nonpayment of utili-
8 ty charges, repair work or cleaning contracted by the tenant or damages
9 caused by the tenant to the premises.

10 (b) (i) In the event that the landlord retains any portion of the 11 security deposit, he or she shall provide the tenant with a written 12 statement listing the reasons for the retention of such portion of the 13 security deposit within twenty-one calendar days after the lease
14 expired.

15 (ii) The written statement shall include photographic documentation
16 for all reasons for retention regarding damages by the tenant to the 17 dwelling and a detailed itemized receipt of repair for such damage. The 18 itemized receipt shall include proof of the cost for the repair of any 19 listed damage on said receipt. The itemized receipt shall also include 20 proof of the payment in full by the landlord for the cost of the repair.
21 If the landlord or landlord's employee did not do the repair work, the 22 landlord shall provide the tenant a copy of the paid bill, paid invoice,
23 or receipt showing payment in full, supplied by the person or entity
24 performing the work. The itemized receipt shall provide the tenant with 25 the name, address, and telephone number of the person or entity who 26 performed the repair work. If the landlord and/or his or her employee 27 performed the repair work, the itemized receipt shall reasonably
28 describe the work performed and any hourly rate charged for the landlord
29 and any employee.

30 (c) When the statement is delivered, it shall be signed by the land-
31 lord attesting to the accuracy of the statement. All tenants whose secu-32 rity deposit is being retained shall sign the written statement and 33 return a signed copy to the landlord if the tenant agrees to the accura-
34 cy of the statement.

35 (d) When the statement is signed by the tenant and returned to the 36 landlord, the landlord shall return to the tenant their security deposit
37 and any accrued interest to which the tenant is entitled less any amount 38 retained by the landlord under this subdivision as agreed to in the 39 statement signed by the tenant.

40 (e) If the tenant does not believe the statement is accurate and thus 41 does not sign, the statement was not signed by the landlord, the remain-
42 der of the security deposit is not returned within twenty-one calendar
43 days after the lease expired, or repairs cannot reasonably be completed
44 within twenty-one calendar days after the lease expired, the tenant may 45 invoke the use of the New York state attorney general's mediation proc-
46 ess and, if the mediation process fails or is not used, bring an action
47 in small claims court.

48 6. The willful retention of a security deposit in violation of this 49 section shall render a landlord liable for treble the amount of that 50 portion of the security deposit wrongfully withheld from the tenant, 51 together with reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and the last two 52 months' rent paid by the tenant. In any action brought by a tenant under 53 this section, the landlord shall bear the burden of proving that his or 54 her withholding of the security deposit or any portion thereof was not 55 willful. This section shall not limit any other penalties the landlord 56 could be subjected to.

1 7. Any provision of a contract or agreement whereby a person who so
2 deposits or advances money waives any provision of this section is abso-
3 lutely void.

4 8. Any landlord found in violation of this section shall have each
5 infraction reported to the department of homes and community renewal,
6 who shall compile a list of landlords who have violated the provisions 7 of this section including, but not limited to, which provisions were 8 violated. The department of homes and community renewal shall post such 9 list on their website, and such information can be requested in paper
10 format by members of the public.

11 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 12 have become a law.
