The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 522 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 720 of 2 the laws of 1953, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 522. Total unemployment and partial unemployment. "Total unemploy-4 ment" means the total lack of any employment [~~on any day~~] during any 5 week. "Partial employment" means any employment during any week that is 6 less than full-time employment so long as the compensation paid is less 7 than the claimant's weekly benefit rate plus the claimant's partial 8 benefit credit. The term "employment" as used in this section means any 9 employment including that not defined in this title.

10 § 2. Section 523 of the labor law is REPEALED and a new section 523 is 11 added to read as follows:

12 § 523. Effective week. "Effective week" means (a) a week during which 13 a claimant performs no services for which the claimant is paid compen-14 sation, or (b) a week during which a claimant performs services on a 15 part-time basis for which the claimant is paid compensation that is less 16 than the claimant's weekly benefit rate plus his or her partial benefit 17 credit.

18 § 3. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 525 to read as 19 follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

1 § 525. Partial benefit credit. "Partial benefit credit" means that 2 part of the compensation, if any, paid to a claimant with respect to a 3 week for which benefits are claimed under the provisions of this law 4 which is not in excess of fifty per centum of the individual's weekly 5 benefit rate, or one hundred dollars, whichever is the greater. Such 6 partial benefit credit, if not a multiple of one dollar, shall be 7 computed to the next higher multiple of one dollar.

8 § 4. Subdivision 4 of section 527 of the labor law, as amended by 9 chapter 832 of the laws of 1968 and as renumbered by chapter 381 of the 10 laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

11 4. General condition. A valid original claim may be filed only in a 12 week ~~[in which the claimant has at least one effective day of unemploy-~~ 13 ~~ment]~~ that qualifies as an effective week of unemployment for the claim-14 ant.

15 § 5. Subparagraph 2 of paragraph (e) of subdivision 1 of section 581 16 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 282 of the laws of 2002 and 17 clause (v) as added by chapter 106 of the laws of 2007, is amended to 18 read as follows:

19 (2) Benefits payable to any claimant with respect to the claimant's 20 then current benefit year shall be charged, when paid, to the account of 21 the last employer prior to the filing of a valid original claim in an 22 amount equal to seven times the claimant's benefit rate. Thereafter, 23 such charges shall be made to the account of each employer in the base 24 period used to establish the valid original claim in the same proportion 25 that the remuneration paid by each employer to the claimant during that 26 base period bears to the remuneration paid by all employers to the 27 claimant during that base period except as provided below:

28 (i) In those instances where the claimant may not utilize wages paid 29 to establish entitlement based upon subdivision ten of section five 30 hundred ninety of this article and an educational institution is the 31 claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits, 32 or the claimant performed services in such educational institution in 33 such capacity while employed by an educational service agency which is 34 the claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for bene-35 fits, such employer shall not be liable for benefit charges for the 36 first ~~[twenty-eight effective days]~~ seven effective weeks of benefits
37 paid as otherwise provided by this section. Under such circumstances, 38 benefits paid shall be charged to the general account. In addition, 39 wages paid during the base period by such educational institutions, or 40 for services in such educational institutions for claimants employed by 41 an educational service agency shall not be considered base period wages 42 during periods that such wages may not be used to gain entitlement to 43 benefits pursuant to subdivision ten of section five hundred ninety of 44 this article.

45 (ii) In those instances where the claimant may not utilize wages paid 46 to establish entitlement based upon subdivision eleven of section five 47 hundred ninety of this article and an educational institution is the 48 claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits, 49 or the claimant performed services in such educational institution in 50 such capacity while employed by an educational service agency which is 51 the claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for bene-52 fits, such employer shall not be liable for benefit charges for the 53 first ~~[twenty-eight effective days]~~ seven effective weeks of benefits
54 paid as otherwise provided by this section. Under such circumstances, 55 benefits paid will be charged to the general account. In addition, wages 56 paid during the base period by such educational institutions, or for services in such educational institutions for claimants employed by an educational service agency shall not be considered base period wages during periods that such wages may not be used to gain entitlement to benefits pursuant to subdivision eleven of section five hundred ninety of this article. However, in those instances where a claimant was not afforded an opportunity to perform services for the educational institution for the next academic year or term after reasonable assurance was provided, such employer shall be liable for benefit charges as provided for in this paragraph for any retroactive payments made to the claimant.

(iii) In those instances where the federal government is the claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits and such employer is not a base-period employer, payments equaling the first ~~[twenty-eight effective days]~~ seven effective weeks of benefits as otherwise prescribed by this section shall be charged to the general account. In those instances where the federal government is the claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits and a base-period employer, such employer shall be liable for charges for all benefits paid on such claim in the same proportion that the remuneration paid by such employer during the base period bears to the remuneration paid by all employers during the base period. In addition, benefit payment charges for the first ~~[twenty-eight effective days]~~ seven effective weeks of benefits other than those chargeable to the federal government as prescribed above shall be made to the general account.

(iv) In those instances where a combined wage claim is filed pursuant to interstate reciprocal agreements and the claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim is an out-of-state employer and such employer is not a base-period employer, benefit payments equaling the first ~~[twenty-eight effective days]~~ seven effective weeks of benefits as otherwise prescribed by this section shall be charged to the general account. In those instances where the out-of-state employer is the last employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits and a base-period employer such employer shall be liable for charges for all benefits paid on such claim in the same proportion that the remuneration paid by such employer during the base period bears to the remuneration paid by all employers during the base period. In addition, benefit payment charges for the ~~[twenty-eight effective days]~~ seven effective weeks of benefits other than those chargeable to the out-of-state employer as prescribed above shall be made to the general account.

(v) In those instances where the last employer prior to the filing of a valid original claim has paid total remuneration to the claimant during the period from the start of the base period used to establish the benefit claim until the date of the claimant's filing of the valid original claim in an amount less than or equal to six times the claimant's benefit rate and the last employer has substantiated such amount to the satisfaction of the commissioner within ten days of the commissioner's original notice of potential charges to such last employer's account, benefits shall be charged as follows: benefits payable to the claimant with respect to the claimant's then current benefit year shall be charged, when paid, to the account of such last employer prior to the filing of a valid original claim in an amount equal to the lowest whole number (one, two, three, four, five, or six) times the claimant's benefit rate where the product of such lowest whole number times the claimant's benefit rate is equal to or greater than such total remuneration paid by such last employer to the claimant. Thereafter, such charges shall be made to the account of each employer in the base period used to establish the valid original claim in the same proportion that the

1 remuneration paid by each employer to the claimant during that base 2 period bears to the remuneration paid by all employers to the claimant 3 during that base period. Notice of such recalculation of potential 4 charges shall be given to the last employer and each employer of the 5 claimant in the base period used to establish the valid original claim.

6 § 6. Subdivision 1 of section 590 of the labor law, as amended by 7 chapter 645 of the laws of 1951, is amended to read as follows:

8 1. Entitlement to benefits. A claimant shall be entitled to accumulate 9 effective [~~days~~] weeks for the purpose of benefit rights only if he has 10 complied with the provisions of this article regarding the filing of his

24 in section six hundred one and subdivision two of section five hundred 25 ninety-nine of this chapter.

26 § 9. Subdivision 5 of section 590 of the labor law is amended by 27 adding two new paragraphs (c) and (d) to read as follows:

28 (c) Benefit for partial unemployment. Except as provided in paragraph 29 (d) of this subdivision, any claimant who is partially unemployed with 30 respect to any effective week shall be paid, with respect to such effec-31 tive week, a benefit equal to his weekly benefit rate less the total of 32 the remuneration, if any, paid or payable to him with respect to such 33 week for services performed which is in excess of his partial benefit 34 credit.

35 (d) Benefit for partial unemployment for certain claimants working one 36 day in a week. Any claimant who is partially unemployed with respect to 37 any effective week but whose employment is limited to one day during 38 that effective week and whose remuneration paid or payable to him with 39 respect to such week for services performed is less than his weekly 40 benefit rate shall be paid, with respect to such effective week, a bene-

52 effective [~~days~~] weeks for the purpose of benefit payments until he has 53 accumulated a waiting period of [~~four effective days either wholly with-~~ 54 ~~in the week in which he established his valid original claim or partly~~ 55 ~~within such week and partly within his benefit year initiated by such~~ 56 ~~claim~~] one effective week.

§ 12. Subdivision 1 of section 591 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 413 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

1. Unemployment. Benefits, except as provided in section five hundred ninety-one-a of this title, shall be paid only to a claimant who is totally unemployed or partially unemployed and who is unable to engage in his usual employment or in any other for which he is reasonably fitted by training and experience. A claimant who is receiving benefits under this article shall not be denied such benefits pursuant to this subdivision or to subdivision two of this section because of such claimant's service on a grand or petit jury of any state or of the United States.

§ 13. Subdivision 1 of section 591 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 446 of the laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:

1. Unemployment. Benefits shall be paid only to a claimant who is totally unemployed or partially unemployed and who is unable to engage in his usual employment or in any other for which he is reasonably fitted by training and experience. A claimant who is receiving benefits under this article shall not be denied such benefits pursuant to this subdivision or to subdivision two of this section because of such claimant's service on a grand or petit jury of any state or of the United States.

§ 14. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 591 of the labor law is REPEALED and a new paragraph (a) is added to read as follows:

(i) requirements relating to total unemployment and partial unemployment, as defined in section five hundred twenty-two of this article, availability for work and search for work, as set forth in subdivision two of section five hundred ninety-one of this title and refusal to accept work, as set forth in subdivision two of section five hundred ninety-three of this title, are not applicable to such individuals;

§ 16. Subdivision 2 of section 592 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 415 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

2. Concurrent payments prohibited. No [~~days~~ weeks] of total unemployment or partial unemployment shall be deemed to occur in any week with respect to which [~~or a part of which~~] a claimant has received or is seeking unemployment benefits under an unemployment compensation law of any other state or of the United States, provided that this provision shall not apply if the appropriate agency of such other state or of the United States finally determines that he is not entitled to such unemployment benefits.

§ 17. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 593 of the labor law, as amended by section 15 of part 0 of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

(a) No [~~days~~ weeks] of total unemployment or partial unemployment shall be deemed to occur after a claimant's voluntary separation without good cause from employment until he or she has subsequently worked in employment and earned remuneration at least equal to ten times his or her weekly benefit rate. In addition to other circumstances that may be found to constitute good cause, including a compelling family reason as set forth in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, voluntary separation from employment shall not in itself disqualify a claimant if circumstances have developed in the course of such employment that would have justified the claimant in refusing such employment in the first instance under the terms of subdivision two of this section or if the claimant, pursuant to an option provided under a collective bargaining agreement or written employer plan which permits waiver of his or her right to retain the employment when there is a temporary layoff because of lack of work, has elected to be separated for a temporary period and the employer has consented thereto.

§ 18. The opening paragraph of subdivision 2 of section 593 of the labor law, as amended by section 15 of part 0 of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

No ~~[days]~~ weeks of total unemployment or partial unemployment shall be deemed to occur beginning with the ~~[day-on]~~ week in which a claimant, without good cause, refuses to accept an offer of employment for which he or she is reasonably fitted by training and experience, including employment not subject to this article, until he or she has subsequently worked in employment and earned remuneration at least equal to ten times his or her weekly benefit rate. Except that claimants who are not subject to a recall date or who do not obtain employment through a union hiring hall and who are still unemployed after receiving ten weeks of benefits shall be required to accept any employment proffered that such claimants are capable of performing, provided that such employment would result in a wage not less than eighty percent of such claimant's high calendar quarter wages received in the base period and not substantially less than the prevailing wage for similar work in the locality as provided for in paragraph (d) of this subdivision. No refusal to accept employment shall be deemed without good cause nor shall it disqualify any claimant otherwise eligible to receive benefits if:

§ 19. Subdivision 3 of section 593 of the labor law, as amended by section 15 of part 0 of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

3. Misconduct. § 20. Subdivision 4 of section 593 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 589 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read as follows:

4. Criminal acts. No ~~[days]~~ weeks of total unemployment or partial unemployment shall be deemed to occur during a period of twelve months after a claimant loses employment as a result of an act constituting a felony in connection with such employment, provided the claimant is duly convicted thereof or has signed a statement admitting that he or she has committed such an act. Determinations regarding a benefit claim may be reviewed at any time. Any benefits paid to a claimant prior to a determination that the claimant has lost employment as a result of such act shall not be considered to have been accepted by the claimant in good faith. In addition, remuneration paid to the claimant by the affected employer prior to the claimant's loss of employment due to such criminal act may not be utilized for the purpose of establishing entitlement to a subsequent, valid original claim. The provisions of this subdivision shall apply even if the employment lost as a result of such act is not the claimant's last employment prior to the filing of his or her claim.

§ 21. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 594 of the labor law, as amended by section 16 of part 0 of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, are amended to read as follows:

(1) A claimant who has wilfully made a false statement or representation to obtain any benefit under the provisions of this article shall forfeit benefits for at least the first ~~[four]~~ one but not more than the first ~~[eighty]~~ twenty effective ~~[days]~~ weeks following discovery of such offense for which he or she otherwise would have been entitled to receive benefits. Such penalty shall apply only once with respect to each such offense.

(2) For the purpose of subdivision four of section five hundred ninety of this article, the claimant shall be deemed to have received benefits for such forfeited effective ~~[days]~~ weeks.

§ 22. Subdivision 1 of section 596 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 204 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

1. Claim filing and certification to unemployment. A claimant shall file a claim for benefits at the local state employment office serving the area in which he was last employed or in which he resides within such time and in such manner as the commissioner shall prescribe. He shall disclose whether he owes child support obligations, as hereafter defined. If a claimant making such disclosure is eligible for benefits, the commissioner shall notify the state or local child support enforcement agency, as hereafter defined, that the claimant is eligible.

A claimant shall correctly report any ~~[days]~~ weeks of employment and any compensation he received for such employment, including employments not subject to this article, and the ~~[days-on]~~ weeks during which he was totally unemployed or partially unemployed and shall make such reports in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe.

§ 23. Subdivision 4 of section 596 of the labor law, as added by chapter 705 of the laws of 1944, as renumbered by section 148-a of part B of chapter 436 of the laws of 1997 and such section as renumbered by chapter 663 of the laws of 1946, is amended to read as follows:

4. Registration and reporting for work. A claimant shall register as totally unemployed or partially unemployed at a local state employment office serving the area in which he was last employed or in which he resides in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe. After so registering, such claimant shall report for work at the same local state employment office or otherwise give notice of the continuance of his unemployment as often and in such manner as the commissioner shall prescribe.

§ 24. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 599 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 593 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a claimant attending an approved training course or program under this section may receive additional benefits of up to ~~[one hundred-four]~~ twenty-six effective ~~[days]~~ weeks following exhaustion of regular and, if in effect, any other extended benefits, provided that entitlement to a new benefit claim cannot be established. Certification of continued satisfactory participation and progress in such training course or program must be submitted to the commissioner prior to the payment of any such benefits. The duration of such additional benefits shall in no case exceed twice the number of effective ~~[days]~~ weeks of regular benefits to which the claimant is entitled at the time the claimant is accepted in, or demonstrates application for appropriate training.

§ 25. The opening paragraph and paragraph (e) of subdivision 2 of section 601 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 35 of the laws of 2009, are amended to read as follows:

1 Extended benefits shall be payable to a claimant for effective [~~days~~ 2 ~~weeks~~ occurring [~~in any week~~] within an eligibility period, provided the 3 claimant

4 (e) is not claiming benefits pursuant to an interstate claim filed 5 under the interstate benefit payment plan in a state where an extended 6 benefit period is not in effect, except that this condition shall not 7 apply with respect to the first [~~eight~~] ~~two~~ effective [~~days~~] ~~weeks~~ for 8 which extended benefits shall otherwise be payable pursuant to an inter-9 state claim filed under the interstate benefit payment plan; and 10 § 26. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of subdivision 3 of section 601 of the 11 labor law, as amended by chapter 35 of the laws of 2009, are amended to 12 read as follows:

13 (b) for not more than [~~fifty-two~~] ~~thirteen~~ effective [~~days~~] ~~weeks~~ with 14 respect to his or her applicable benefit year, with a total maximum 15 amount equal to fifty percentum of the total maximum amount of regular 16 benefits payable in such benefit year, and 17 (c) if a claimant's benefit year ends within an extended benefit peri-18 od, the remaining balance of extended benefits to which he or she would 19 be entitled, if any, shall be reduced by the number of effective [~~days~~] 20 ~~weeks~~ for which he or she was entitled to receive trade readjustment 21 allowances under the federal trade act of nineteen hundred seventy-four 22 during such benefit year, and

23 § 27. Subdivision 4 of section 601 of the labor law, as amended by 24 chapter 35 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

25 4. Charging of extended benefits. The provisions of paragraph (e) of 26 subdivision one of section five hundred eighty-one of this article shall 27 apply to benefits paid pursuant to the provisions of this section, and 28 if they were paid for effective [~~days occurring in~~] weeks following the 29 end of a benefit year, they shall be deemed paid with respect to that 30 benefit year. However, except for governmental entities as defined in 31 section five hundred sixty-five and Indian tribes as defined in section 32 five hundred sixty-six of this article, only one-half of the amount of 33 such benefits shall be debited to the employers' account; the remainder 34 thereof shall be debited to the general account, and such account shall

36 the provisions of the federal-state extended unemployment compensation 37 act. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the state has entered an 38 extended benefit period triggered pursuant to subparagraph one of para-39 graph (a) of subdivision one of this section for which federal law 40 provides for one hundred percent federal sharing of the costs of bene-41 fits, all charges shall be debited to the general account and such 42 account shall be credited with the amount of payments received in the 43 fund pursuant to the provisions of the federal-state extended unemploy-44 ment compensation act or other federal law providing for one hundred 45 percent federal sharing for the cost of such benefits.

46 § 28. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 5 of section 601 of the labor law,

48 follows:

49 (b) No [~~days~~] ~~weeks~~ of total unemployment or partial unemployment 50 shall be deemed to occur [~~in any week~~] within an eligibility period 51 during which a claimant fails to accept any offer of suitable work or 52 fails to apply for suitable work to which he or she was referred by the 53 commissioner, who shall make such referral if such work is available, or 54 during which he or she fails to engage actively in seeking work by 55 making a systematic and sustained effort to obtain work and providing 56 tangible evidence of such effort, and until he or she has worked in

1 employment during at least four subsequent weeks and earned remuneration 2 of at least four times his or her benefit rate.

3 § 29. Paragraph (e) of subdivision 5 of section 601 of the labor law, 4 as amended by chapter 35 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as 5 follows:

6 (e) No [~~days~~] weeks of total unemployment or partial unemployment

11 § 30. Section 603 of the labor law, as amended by section 21 of part O

13 § 603. Definitions. For purposes of this title: "Total unemployment" 14 shall mean the total lack of any employment [~~on any day~~] during any week 15 and "partial unemployment" shall mean any employment during any week

24 have become a law, provided that the amendments to subdivision 1 of 25 section 591 of the labor law made by section twelve of this act shall be 26 subject to the expiration and reversion of such subdivision pursuant to 27 section 10 of chapter 413 of the laws of 2003, as amended, when upon 28 such date the provisions of section thirteen of this act shall take 29 effect; provided further that the amendments to section 591-a of the 30 labor law made by section fifteen of this act shall not affect the 31 repeal of such section and shall be deemed repealed therewith.
