AN ACT to amend the public service law, in relation to customers with life-saving equipment during a service disruption

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. 1. Definitions. For purposes of this section:
2 "customer with life-saving equipment" shall have the same meaning as a
3 person living in a residence that uses a life support system as defined
4 in subdivision 12 of section 65 of the public service law.
5 2. a. The public service commission shall commence a rulemaking
6 proceeding to set minimum requirements regarding customers with life-
7 saving equipment. Such rulemaking proceeding shall establish a plan
8 that, in the event of an electric service disruption, requires electric 9 corporations to:
10 i. provide backup generators capable of powering life-saving equipment
11 to customers with life-saving equipment, including refueling or recharg-
12 ing services; or
13 ii. provide temporary lodging accommodations at a location capable of 14 powering life-saving equipment, including but not limited to compen-
15 sation for hotel rooms or hospital admissions, based on the duration of 16 the electric service disruption to customers with life-saving equipment;
17 and
18 iii. prioritize electric service restoration to customers with life-
19 saving equipment.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 b. Upon adoption by the commission, each electric corporation shall
2 incorporate the established minimum requirements into its emergency
3 response plan pursuant to subdivision 21 of section 66 of the public
4 service law and shall inform its customers of such information via posts
5 on its website, e-mail and bill inserts.

6 § 2. The public service law is amended by adding a new section 65-c to 7 read as follows:

8 § 65-c. Customers with life-saving equipment. 1. Definitions. For 9 purposes of this section:

10 "customer with life-saving equipment" shall have the same meaning as a
11 person living in a residence that uses a life support system as defined
12 in subdivision twelve of section sixty-five of this article.

13 2. Customers with life-saving equipment. (a) Electric corporations
14 shall establish a unique priority phone number that shall remain in 15 operation every day of the year for customers with life-saving equip-
16 ment.

17 (b) Information regarding such phone number shall be provided in bill 18 inserts, via e-mail, and posted on electric corporations' websites and 19 shall include reminders for existing customers with life-saving equip-
20 ment to call such number to ensure they are still registered with the 21 electric corporation as a customer with life-saving equipment.

22 (c) Customers with life-saving equipment shall be able to call such 23 number established by paragraph (a) of this subdivision at any time,
24 including a time preceding or during an electric service disruption to:

25 i. register with an electric corporation so as to be placed on its 26 current list of customers who use life support systems pursuant to 27 subdivision twelve of section sixty-five of this article;

28 ii. receive information or projections regarding the severity of a
29 storm, storm-like electric emergency or system emergency, if applicable;

30 iii. report an outage or receive instructions on how to report an 31 outage;

32 iv. receive updated information regarding the estimated time of resto-
33 ration, including website links to outage maps updated every thirty
34 minutes, if applicable;

35 v. receive outage safety precautions, including but not limited to:
36 storm survival without electric power, safety precautions regarding 37 electrical hazards such as downed wires and the use of portable genera-
38 tors;

39 vi. receive information regarding dry ice distribution, if applicable;

40 vii. receive information regarding power charging locations, if appli-
41 cable;

42 viii. receive information regarding cooling locations, if applicable;

43 ix. receive information regarding the claims process for spoiled food
44 and medication, if applicable;

45 x. receive potential information adopted pursuant to a rulemaking
46 proceeding commenced by the commission regarding restoration prioritiza-
47 tion, backup generators, or compensation for lodging in the event of an 48 electric service disruption for customers with life-saving equipment, if 49 applicable; and

50 xi. receive information regarding the facilitation of transportation
51 to the nearest hospital or facility that is capable of powering life-
52 saving equipment, if applicable.

53 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
