AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to dogs engaged in hunting or training

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 122 of the agriculture and markets law is amended 2 by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. For the purposes of this section a "hunting dog" is a dog that is being used for hunting or training purposes, in accordance with section 11-0923 of the environmental conservation law, is wearing a tag, collar or other device which includes contact information of the owner, trainer 7 or handler, and is in compliance with section one hundred nine of this article. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions one and two of this section or section one hundred thirteen of this article, a hunting 10 dog may be deemed to be under the reasonable control of its owner, 11 trainer or handler, and not be deemed to be running at large if at the 12 time of recovery or seizure by a dog control officer, peace officer 13 acting pursuant to his or her special duties or police officer, who is 14 authorized by a municipality to enforce any local law or ordinance 15 related to the keeping and running at large of dogs and the seizure thereof, (a) the hunting dog owner, trainer or handler is on property 16 17 where hunting is permitted, and (b) the hunting dog was released from 18 its confines by the owner, trainer or handler to hunt on property where 19 hunting is permitted, and (c) that the hunting dog owner, trainer or 20 handler can demonstrate that he or she is licensed to hunt with dogs in accordance with section 11-0923 of the environmental conservation law. 21 If it can be so determined at the time of recovery or seizure of a hunt-23 ing dog by a dog control officer, peace officer acting pursuant to his 24 or her special duties or police officer, who is authorized by a munici-
