AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to deductibles for physical damage insurance

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subsection (k) of section 3411 of the insurance law is 2 amended to read as follows:

3 (k) (1) Each insurer which offers physical damage insurance subject to 4 the provisions of this section shall offer such insurance with a stand-
5 ard deductible of two hundred dollars for each occurrence. The insured
6 shall, however, at the inception of the policy or at the annual anniversary 7 date, or at the time of the replacement or addition of an automobile, 8 have the option of purchasing a policy with a lesser deductible,
9 but in no event may the insurer sell a policy with a deductible of less 10 than fifty dollars for fire, theft or comprehensive insurance coverages 11 (one hundred dollars for assigned risk policies issued pursuant to paragraph 12 two of subsection (a) of section five thousand three hundred three 13 of this chapter) and one hundred dollars for collision insurance coverage 14 except that window glass coverage may be sold without a deductible.
15 Each insurer which offers physical damage insurance subject to the 16 provisions of this section shall also offer physical damage coverages 17 with co-insurance or deductible provisions or combinations thereof as 18 the superintendent may prescribe, including but not limited to deductibles 19 of two hundred fifty dollars, five hundred dollars and one thousand 20 dollars.

21 (2) Notwithstanding the dollar limits for deductibles in paragraph one 22 of this subsection, an insurer which offers physical damage insurance 23 subject to the provisions of this section may offer a reduced dollar

1 deductible, a zero dollar deductible or a deductible that diminishes
2 over time and may ultimately be reduced to zero dollars.

3 (3) An insurer who offers a reduced dollar deductible, a zero dollar 4 deductible or a deductible that diminishes over time shall disclose to 5 the insured or potential insured at the time such a deductible is 6 offered or a policy that has such a deductible is renewed how such a
7 deductible would interact with the other provisions of the insured's
8 policy, any additional cost to the insured for having such a deductible,
9 the circumstances under which the deductible may be reduced or dimin-
10 ished, if and under what circumstances the deductible may be increased, 11 and the effect that the deductible may have upon the insured's premium.

12 (4) Under no circumstances shall an insurer penalize an insured who 13 has a reduced dollar deductible, a zero dollar deductible or a deduct-14 ible that diminishes over time by increasing both the insured's premium
15 and deductible in response to the same claim or incident. This paragraph 16 shall not be construed to prohibit an insurer from increasing either the 17 insured's premium or deductible in response to the same claim or inci-18 dent.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
