AN ACT to amend the workers' compensation law, in relation to providing incentives for productive workers' compensation audits

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The workers' compensation law is amended by adding a new section 112-a to read as follows:

§ 112-a. Audits of employers. 1. (a) Employers in all classes other than the construction class shall be audited not less frequently than biennially and the chair or board may provide for more frequent audits of employers in specified classifications based on factors such as amount of premium, type of business, loss ratios, or other relevant factors. In no event shall employers in the construction class, generating more than the amount of premium required to be experience rated, be audited less frequently than annually. The annual audits required for construction classes shall be a physical, onsite review of original payroll records, employee records, checkbooks, cash book (disbursements and receipts), general ledger, contracts, tax returns including quarterly payroll filings, and original certificates of insurance. The audit shall be conducted no more than ninety days after the expiration of a policy period. At the completion of an audit, if requested by the auditor, the employer or officer of the corporation and the auditor must print and sign their names on the audit document affirming the accuracy of the information provided therein. As required by section one hundred twelve of this article, employers shall make available all books and records necessary for the payroll verification audit and permit the auditor to make a physical inspection of the employer's operation. If an employer fails to provide reasonable access to all such books and records necessary for a payroll verification audit, including a physical

1 inspection of the employer's operation, the employer shall pay an addi-
2 tional premium to the carrier of three times the most recent estimated 3 annual premium.

4 (b) If an employer knowingly understates or knowingly conceals
5 payroll, knowingly misrepresents or knowingly conceals employee duties
6 so as to avoid proper classification for premium calculations, or know-7 ingly misrepresents or knowingly conceals information pertinent to the 8 computation and application of an experience rating modification factor, 9 said knowing misrepresentations or knowing concealments shall be consid-10 ered fraudulent practices in violation of applicable provisions of 11 section one hundred fourteen of this article and insurance fraud in 12 violation of applicable provisions of section 176.05 of the penal law.

13 (c) If during the course of an audit conducted under this section, an 14 insurance carrier obtains information indicating a violation of the 15 provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, then the carrier shall 16 report such information to the board.

17 2. This section shall not apply to employers that self-insure or 18 employers that are members of a workers' compensation group self-insured 19 trust.

20 3. For the purposes of this section, "construction class" means the 21 work or occupation described in "Group 3" of subdivision one of section 22 three of this chapter.

23 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
