AN ACT directing the commissioner of motor vehicles to conduct a study on the distribution of traffic fines

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The commissioner of motor vehicles shall conduct a study in cooperation and consultation with the New York State Association of Towns, the New York Conference of Mayors and Municipal Officials, and the New York State Magistrates Association relating to the disposition of fines and penalties as provided in section 1803 of the vehicle and traffic law. Such study shall include, but not be limited to, an examination of the distribution of fine revenue according to the jurisdiction over the highway where a violation occurred, the statute violated, whether the statute violated is a state law or a local ordinance, and the annual per capita monetary cap on revenues applicable to villages and suburban towns. In conducting this study, such commissioner shall examine particularly the fairness of the current law as it relates to the disposition of fines collected for violations under title 7 of the vehicle and traffic law, with special attention given to violations of section 1180 of the vehicle and traffic law.

§ 2. Upon completion of the study but no later than the thirty-first of December next succeeding the date on which this act shall have become a law, the commissioner of motor vehicles shall submit a report based on the findings of the study to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate, the minority leader of the assembly, the chair of the senate transportation committee, and the chair of the assembly transportation committee which shall include the findings of the study as well as recommendations for statutory changes that may be implemented in order to ensure a more equitable distribution of revenue for violations of
