AN ACT to amend the public service law, the public authorities law and the executive law, in relation to requiring electric corporations and the Long Island power authority service provider to prioritize restoring services to police departments, fire departments, and ambulance services, when electric services are interrupted

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public service law is amended by adding a new section 2 73-a to read as follows:

3 § 73-a. Prioritization of emergency services. 1. If an electric corpo-
4 ration is not able to restore electric power services to any police
5 department, fire department, or ambulance service which has a facility 6 that is prewired with an appropriate transfer switch for using an alter-7 nate generated power source within twenty-four hours of the loss or 8 interruption of such electric power services, such electric corporation 9 shall notify the local county office of emergency management which shall 10 provide for emergency deployment of alternate generated power sources
11 through a program administered by the division of homeland security and 12 emergency services to such police department, fire department, and/or 13 ambulance service with an alternate generated power source.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD02595-15-2

1     2. An electric corporation shall not increase charges to any rate 2     payers to cover any extra costs incurred by such electric corporation as 3     a result of compliance with subdivision one of this section.

4     3. For the purposes of this section, "alternate generated power
5     source" shall mean electric generating equipment that is of the capacity
6     that is capable of providing adequate electricity to operate all life
7     safety systems and the basic operations of a police department, fire
8     department, or ambulance service.

9     4. This section shall only apply to police departments, fire depart-
10    ments, or ambulance services who are registered with the division of 11    homeland security and emergency services pursuant to article twenty-six 12    of the executive law.

13    § 2. Title 1-A of article 5 of the public authorities law, as added by 14    chapter 517 of the laws of 1986, is amended by adding a new section 15    1020-mm to read as follows:

16    § 1020-mm. Prioritization of emergency services. 1. If the service
17    provider is not able to restore electric power services to any police 18    department, fire department, or ambulance service which has a 19    facility that is prewired with an appropriate transfer switch for using 20    an alternate generated power source within twenty-four hours of the loss 21    or interruption of such electric power services, the service provider
22    shall notify the local county office of emergency management which shall 23    provide for emergency deployment of alternate generated power sources
24    through a program administered by the division of homeland security and 25    emergency services to such police department, fire department, and/or 26    ambulance service with an alternate generated power source.

27    2. The service provider shall not increase charges to any rate payers 28    to cover any extra costs incurred by the service provider as a result of 29    compliance with subdivision one of this section.

30    3. For the purposes of this section, "alternate generated power
31    source" shall mean electric generating equipment that is of the capacity
32    that is capable of providing adequate electricity to operate all life
33    safety systems and the basic operations of a police department, fire
34    department, or ambulance service.

35    4. This section shall only apply to police departments, fire depart-
36    ments, or ambulance services who are registered with the division of 37    homeland security and emergency services pursuant to article twenty-six 38    of the executive law.

39    § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 709 of the executive law is amended by 40    adding a new paragraph (v) to read as follows:

41    (v) develop a program to make electric generating equipment owned or 42    leased by the state available to county offices of emergency management 43    pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public service law.

44    § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
