- 4 (iii) receives qualified wages for at least three continuous months 5 from the taxpayer during the taxable year.
  - (d) For the purposes of this subdivision, "qualified wages" shall mean wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the taxable year to the qualified individual, provided that the amount of qualified wages which may be taken into account when calculating the credit pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars per year.
- (e) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the credit and carryover of such credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable years shall not, in the aggregate, reduce the tax due for such year to less than the higher of the amounts prescribed in paragraphs (c) and (d) of subdivision one of this section, any amount of credit or carryover of such credit thus not deductible in such taxable year may be carried over to the following year or years and may be deducted from the tax for such year or years. In addition, the amount of such credit, and carryovers of such credit to the taxable year, deducted from the tax 20 otherwise due may not, in the aggregate, exceed fifty percent of the tax imposed under section two hundred nine of this article computed without regard to any credit provided by this section.
  - § 2. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (k-1) to read as follows:
  - (k-1) Re-entry employment incentive tax credit. (1) A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as hereinafter provided, against the tax imposed by this article in the amount prescribed by this subsection where such taxpayer employs one or more qualifying individuals designated pursuant to paragraph three of this subsection.
- 30 (2) The amount of the credit shall be as follows for each qualifying 31 individual employed by the taxpayer:
- 32 (i) Fifty percent of the qualified wages in the first year of employ-33 ment;
- 34 (ii) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employ-35 ment; and
  - (iii) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.
  - (3) For the purposes of this subsection, "qualifying individual" shall mean an individual hired by a taxpayer on or after January first, two thousand twenty-one who:
  - (i) has been convicted of a felony in this state in the last five years, has been released from a correctional facility as defined in subdivision four of section two of the correction law in the last five years or is serving a period of post-release supervision, parole or probation for the conviction of a felony, provided that an individual shall be considered a qualified individual for each of the first four years of employment if hired by the taxpayer within the time period specified in this subparagraph;
    - (ii) resides in this state; and
- (iii) receives qualified wages for at least three continuous months 50 51 from the taxpayer during the taxable year.
- (4) For the purposes of this subsection, "qualified wages" shall mean 52 53 wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the taxable year to the 54 qualified individual, provided that the amount of qualified wages which 55 may be taken into account when calculating the credit pursuant to this 56 subsection shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars per year.
