defined in subdivision twenty-two of section 1.03 of the mental hygiene 1 2 law and enrollees who are under twenty-one years of age under section three hundred sixty-five-1 of this chapter, or any entity that provides 3 4 home and community based services to enrollees who are under twenty-one 5 years of age under a demonstration program pursuant to section eleven б hundred fifteen of the federal social security act; temporary employment 7 agencies providing substitute child care staff to any other provider 8 agency, and educational and training institutions assigning child care 9 staff as interns or residents at any other provider agency; publicly-10 funded emergency shelters for families with children, provided, however, 11 for purposes of this section, when the provider or provider agency is a publicly-funded emergency shelter for families with children, then all 12 13 references in this section to the "potential for regular and substantial 14 contact with individuals who are cared for by the agency" shall mean the 15 potential for regular and substantial contact with children who are 16 served by such shelter; and any other facility or provider agency, as 17 defined in subdivision four of section four hundred eighty-eight of this 18 chapter, in regard to the employment of staff, or use of providers of 19 goods and services and staff of such providers, consultants, interns and 20 volunteers. 21 2. Section 390-b of the social services law is amended by adding a § 22

new subdivision 12 to read as follows: 12. For purposes of this section, and notwithstanding section three 23 24 hundred ninety of this article, an operator or provider of a child day 25 care center or a school age child care program shall include temporary 26 child care employment agencies and child care educational and training 27 institutions. A temporary child care employment agency or child care educational and training institution shall be subject to the criminal 28 29 history record check requirements for child care staff who may be placed 30 at a child day care center or a school age child care program, but not 31 for the operators or providers of such temporary child care employment 32 agency or child care educational and training institution. Such requirements shall include submitting fingerprint cards and such other informa-33 34 tion as required by the office of children and family services and the 35 division of criminal justice services, and authorizing the office of 36 children and family services to deny or hold in abeyance an employee's 37 application as provided for in this section. The office of children and 38 family services may charge the temporary child care employment agency or 39 child care educational and training institution an amount equal to the processing fee imposed pursuant to subdivision eight-a of section eight 40 41 hundred thirty-seven of the executive law. Where the office of children 42 and family services advises the temporary child care employment agency 43 or child care educational and training institution that an individual 44 has no criminal history record, no additional criminal history record 45 check by a child day care center or a school age child care program 46 shall be required upon placement of that individual at the child day 47 care center or a school age child care program. For purposes of this subdivision, a "temporary child care employment agency" shall mean any 48 entity that employs substitute child care staff to be supplied on a 49 temporary basis to a child day care center or a school age child care 50 51 program, and a "child care educational and training institution" shall 52 mean any entity that assigns child care staff as interns or residents at 53 a child day care center or a school age child care program.

54 § 3. This act shall take effect January 1, 2022.
