32 A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while 33 lawfully acting in his or her capacity as provided in paragraphs (c), 34 (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this 35 article.

36 The disclosure requirement in questions (b-1) and (b-2) shall not 37 require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceu-38 tical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real 39 estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her 40 firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting 41 individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her 42 firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or

5 initials. To the extent that the reporting individual, or his or her

8 lations restrict the disclosure of information relating to such work, 9 the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client 10 and the services provided relating to the initial public offering to the 11 office of court administration, who will maintain such information
12 confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her response 13 to questions (b-1) and (b-2) that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclo-

15 that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no 16 longer restricted by professional disciplinary rules, federal law or 17 regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such information in 18 an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure require-
19 ments in questions (b-1) and (b-2). The office of court administration
20 shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which information

23 otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an exemption to 24 publicly disclosing the name of that client from the commission on 25 ethics and lobbying in government pursuant to section ninety-four of the 26 executive law, or from the office of court administration. In such 27 application, the reporting individual shall state the following: "My

40 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the commission on ethics
41 and lobbying in government or the office of court administration may 42 consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative 43 ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may 44 consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination, 45 the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of 46 court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider 47 factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of 48 the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state; 49 and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the client has 50 any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how signif-
51 icant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade
52 secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation 53 against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the 54 client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attor-55 ney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an 56 unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

1 The commission on ethics and lobbying in government or, as the case
2 may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final 3 determination in response to such request, which shall include an expla-
4 nation for its determination. The office of court administration shall 5 issue its final determination within three days of receiving the 6 request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional 7 disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any 8 client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute 9 professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, 10 or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceed-
11 ing. A reporting individual who first enters public office after January 12 first, two thousand sixteen, need not report clients or customers with 13 respect to matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm 14 was retained prior to entering public office.

23 individual a client who was successfully referred to the reporting indi-
24 vidual's business and from whom the reporting individual or firm
25 received a fee for services in excess of five thousand dollars. Report 26 only those referrals that were made to a reporting individual by direct 27 communication from a person known to such reporting individual to be a 28 registered lobbyist at the time the referral is made. With respect to 29 each such referral, the reporting individual shall identify the client, 30 the registered lobbyist who has made the referral, the category of value 31 of the compensation received and a general description of the type of 32 matter so referred. A reporting individual need not disclose activities 33 performed while lawfully acting pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and 34 (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article. The 35 disclosure requirements in this question shall not require disclosing 36 clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental 37 services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering 38 services from the reporting individual or his or her firm or if federal 39 law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting individual need not 40 identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal 41 representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law 42 enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or 43 domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting individual identify 44 individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy but the report-45 ing individual shall in such circumstances only report the entity that 46 provides compensation to the reporting individual; with respect to 47 matters in which the client's name is required by law to be kept confi-
48 dential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or in matters

53 regulations restricts the disclosure of information relating to such 54 work, the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the 55 client and the services provided relating to the initial public offering 56 to the office of court administration, who will maintain such informa-

1 tion confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her 2 response a statement that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclosure to 3 the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time that 4 the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer 5 restricted by federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall 6 disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response
7 to the disclosure requirements of this paragraph. The office of court 8 administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which 9 information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and 10 confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other
