§ 797. Jurisdiction; courts; venue. 1. Except as prohibited under subdivision three of this section, a special proceeding for judgment directing repairs of conditions and other relief in residential real property constituting violation of applicable local and state housing standards or section two hundred thirty-five-b of the real property law may be maintained in a county court, justice court, district court, city court, or civil court of the city of New York.

2. The place of trial of the special proceeding shall be within the jurisdictional area of the court in which the residential real property or a portion thereof is situated.

3. A special proceeding for judgment directing repairs of conditions and/or other relief in residential real property under this article shall not be maintained where such residential real property located in the county of Nassau or the county of Suffolk, and shall not be maintained in any court in such counties.

§ 797-a. Person who may maintain proceeding. 1. The proceeding may be maintained by any party, known herein as a tenant, who is an occupant of residential real property for thirty consecutive days or longer under an agreement not created by deed.

2. The proceeding may be maintained by one or more tenants of a residential property.

§ 797-b. Respondent. The following may be named as a respondent:

1. The person, corporation, limited liability company, general partnership, limited partnership, or any other entity holding title to the real property.

2. The person or organization listed on any state or local residential registration statement.

3. Anyone who holds themselves out as landlord by such actions as collecting rent, making repairs, signing leases, or other such conduct.

4. A public housing authority or a governmental body that owns or manages the property.

§ 797-c. Commencement; notice of petition; petition. 1. The proceeding shall be commenced by the filing of a notice of petition and petition with the clerk of the court. A notice of petition may be issued by an attorney, judge, or clerk of the court.

2. The notice of petition shall specify the time and place of the hearing on the petition and state that if the respondent shall fail to appear at such time and place to interpose any defense, the respondent may be precluded from asserting such defense.

3. The office of court administration shall promulgate simple forms that tenant-petitioners may use to commence the special proceedings.

4. Court clerks shall be charged with assisting petitioners to complete and serve the notice of petition and petition to commence the special proceeding.

§ 797-d. Time of service; order to show cause. 1. The notice of petition and petition shall be served at least ten and not more than seventeen days before the time at which the petition is to be heard.

2. The court may grant an order to show cause to be served in lieu of a notice of petition at a time and in a manner specified therein.

1 § 797-e. Manner of service of notice of petition and petition; when
2 service complete. 1. Personal service upon a natural person may be
3 completed in the manner in which a summons is served under section three
4 hundred eight of the civil practice law and rules.

5 2. Personal service upon a partnership may be completed in a manner in 6 which a summons is served under sections three hundred eight, three
7 hundred ten or three hundred ten-a of the civil practice law and rules.

8 3. Personal service on a corporation may be completed in a manner in 9 which a summons is served under section three hundred eleven of the 10 civil practice law and rules.

11 4. Personal service upon a limited liability company may be completed
12 in a manner in which a summons is served under section three hundred 13 eleven-a of the civil practice law and rules.

14 5. In the alternative, personal service may be completed by the court
15 clerk on any natural person, partnership, corporation, or limited
16 liability company by mailing the notice of petition and petition by 17 certified and first-class mail to an address where local property tax
18 bills are sent. If the jurisdiction in which the court sits has a rental
19 registry requirement, service may be completed by mailing to the address
20 for the real property in the registry.

21 6. Proof of service shall be filed with the clerk of the court within 22 three days thereafter. Personal service on the respondent shall be 23 complete upon personal delivery. Any authorized mail service pursuant to 24 this subdivision shall be complete upon the filing of proof of service.

25 § 797-f. Contents of the petition. 1. The petition shall be verified
26 by the person authorized to maintain the proceeding under section seven 27 hundred ninety-seven-a of this article or by a legal representative,
28 attorney, or agent of such person pursuant to rule three hundred twenty 29 of the civil practice law and rules. The attorney of such person may 30 verify upon information and belief.

31 2. Every petition shall:

32 a. State the interest of the petitioner in the premises for which 33 relief under this article is sought;

34 b. Describe the premises that is the subject of the petition;

35 c. State the facts upon which the special proceeding is based, includ-
36 ing those conditions constituting violation of applicable state or local 37 housing standards or section two hundred thirty-five-b of the real prop-
38 erty law; and

39 d. State the relief sought. Such relief may include an order to 40 repair, a monetary judgment in favor of petitioner for diminished value
41 of real property, and an order reducing future rent until violations
42 have been cured.

43 § 797-g. Notice to local housing standard enforcement agency. The 44 clerk of the court shall mail a copy of the filed notice of petition and 45 petition to the appropriate government agency charged with enforcing
46 local or state housing standards within the court's jurisdiction.

47 § 797-h. Answer. At or prior to the time the petition is to be heard
48 the respondent may answer orally or in writing. If the answer is oral
49 the substance thereof shall be recorded by the clerk or, if a particular 50 court has no clerk, by the presiding judge or justice of such court, and 51 maintained in the case record. The answer may contain any legal or equi-
52 table defense.

53 § 797-i. Trial. Where triable issues of fact are raised, they shall be 54 tried by the court unless, at the time the petition is noticed to be 55 heard, a party demands a trial by jury, in which case trial shall be by 56 jury. At the time when issue is joined, the court, at the request of either party shall adjourn the trial of the issue, not less than fourteen days, except by consent of all parties. A party's second or subsequent request for adjournment shall be granted in the court's sole discretion.

§ 797-j. Judgment. 1. The court shall direct that final judgment be entered determining the rights of the parties.

2. The judgment may include:

a. An order to repair conditions constituting violation of applicable local and state housing standards or section two hundred thirty-five-b of the real property law;

b. A monetary judgment in favor of the petitioner for the diminished value of the real property resulting from violation of applicable local and state housing standards or section two hundred thirty-five-b of the real property law;

c. A reduction in future rent for the diminished value of the real property resulting from violation of applicable local and state housing standards or section two hundred thirty-five-b of the real property law until such time that, to the court's satisfaction, the violation has been cured; and

d. Any other relief that the court may deem just.

§ 3. Section 204 of the uniform city court act is amended to read as follows:

§ 204. Summary proceedings.

The court shall have jurisdiction of summary proceedings to recover possession of real property located in whole or in part within the city, to remove tenants therefrom, and to render judgment for rent due without regard to amount. Except as otherwise prohibited pursuant to subdivision three of section seven hundred ninety-seven of the real property actions and proceedings law, the court shall have jurisdiction of summary proceedings commenced under article seven-C of the real property actions and proceedings law relating to real property located in whole or in part within the city, and render relief authorized therein.

4 chapter 373 of the laws of 1966, is amended to read as follows:

5 § 204. Summary proceedings. The court shall have jurisdiction over
6 summary proceedings to recover possession of real property located with-
7 in the city of New York, to remove tenants therefrom, and to render
8 judgment for rent due without regard to amount, and in such a proceeding
9 after the court has determined that a warrant of eviction be issued, it
10 shall not be necessary for the court to sign the warrant, but it may be
11 signed by the clerk of said court. The court shall also have jurisdic-
12 tion over special proceedings by tenants of multiple dwellings in the 13 city of New York for judgment directing deposit of rents and the use
14 thereof for the purpose of remedying conditions dangerous to life,
15 health or safety, as authorized by article seven-a of the real property
16 actions and proceedings law. Except as otherwise prohibited pursuant to 17 subdivision three of section seven hundred ninety-seven of the real
18 property actions and proceedings law, the court shall have jurisdiction
19 of summary proceedings commenced under article seven-C of the real prop-
20 erty actions and proceedings law relating to real property located in 21 whole or in part within the city of New York, and render relief author-
22 ized therein.

23 § 7. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 24 it shall have become a law.
