(j) the Western region (which consists of Niagara, Erie, Chautauqua, Cattaraugus, and Allegany counties).

2. Each regional economic development council shall develop long-term strategic plans for economic growth within its region of the state.

3. The members of each regional economic development council shall be local experts and stakeholders from businesses, academia, municipalities and non-governmental organizations within the region. All such members shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

4. All members of regional economic development councils shall be subject to the provisions of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law.

§ 2. Subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 73-a of the public officers law, as amended by section 5 of part A of chapter 399 of the laws of 2011, are amended and a new subparagraph (iv) is added to read as follows:

(ii) officers and employees of statewide elected officials, officers and employees of state departments, boards, bureaus, divisions, commissions, councils or other state agencies, who receive annual compensation in excess of the filing rate established by paragraph (1) of this subdivision or who hold policy-making positions, as annually determined by the appointing authority and set forth in a written instrument which shall be filed with the joint commission on public ethics established by section ninety-four of the executive law during the month of February, provided, however, that the appointing authority shall amend such written instrument after such date within thirty days after the undertaking of policy-making responsibilities by a new employee or any other employee whose name did not appear on the most recent written instrument; ~~and~~

(iii) members or directors of public authorities, other than multi-state authorities, public benefit corporations and commissions at least one of whose members is appointed by the governor, and employees of such authorities, corporations and commissions who receive annual compensation in excess of the filing rate established by paragraph (1) of this subdivision or who hold policy-making positions, as determined annually by the appointing authority and set forth in a written instrument which shall be filed with the joint commission on public ethics established by section ninety-four of the executive law during the month of February, provided, however, that the appointing authority shall amend such written instrument after such date within thirty days after the undertaking of policy-making responsibilities by a new employee or any other employee whose name did not appear on the most recent written instrument~~[-];~~
and

(iv) members of regional economic development councils.

§ 3. Section 74 of the public officers law, as amended by chapter 1012 of the laws of 1965, the opening paragraph of subdivision 1 and subdivision 4 as amended by chapter 14 of the laws of 2007, subdivisions 2 and 3 as amended by section 7 of part K of chapter 286 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

§ 74. Code of ethics. 1. Definition. As used in this section: The term "state agency" shall mean any state department, or division, board, commission, or bureau of any state department or any public benefit corporation or public authority at least one of whose members is appointed by the governor or corporations closely affiliated with specific state agencies as defined by paragraph (d) of subdivision five of section fifty-three-a of the state finance law or their successors.

1 The term "legislative employee" shall mean any officer or employee of 2 the legislature but it shall not include members of the legislature.

3 2. Rule with respect to conflicts of interest. No officer or employee 4 of a state agency, member of the legislature or legislative employee or 5 member of a regional economic development council should have any inter-
6 est, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any busi-7 ness or transaction or professional activity or incur any obligation of 8 any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge
9 of his or her duties in the public interest.

10 3. Standards.

11 a. No officer or employee of a state agency, member of the legislature
12 or legislative employee or member of a regional economic development
13 council should accept other employment which will impair his or her 14 independence of judgment in the exercise of his or her official duties.

15 b. No officer or employee of a state agency, member of the legislature
16 or legislative employee or member of a regional economic development
17 council should accept employment or engage in any business or profes-
18 sional activity which will require him or her to disclose confidential
19 information which he or she has gained by reason of his or her official 20 position or authority.

21 c. No officer or employee of a state agency, member of the legislature
22 or legislative employee or member of a regional economic development
23 council should disclose confidential information acquired by him or her 24 in the course of his or her official duties nor use such information to 25 further his or her personal interests.

26 d. No officer or employee of a state agency, member of the legislature
27 or legislative employee or member of a regional economic development
28 council should use or attempt to use his or her official position to 29 secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for himself or herself or 30 others, including but not limited to, the misappropriation to himself, 31 herself or to others of the property, services or other resources of the 32 state for private business or other compensated non-governmental 33 purposes.

34 e. No officer or employee of a state agency, member of the legislature
35 or legislative employee or member of a regional economic development
36 council should engage in any transaction as representative or agent of 37 the state with any business entity in which he or she has a direct or 38 indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with 39 the proper discharge of his or her official duties.

40 f. An officer or employee of a state agency, member of the legislature
41 or legislative employee or member of a regional economic development
42 council should not by his or her conduct give reasonable basis for the 43 impression that any person can improperly influence him or her or unduly 44 enjoy his or her favor in the performance of his or her official duties,
45 or that he or she is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influ-
46 ence of any party or person.

47 g. An officer or employee of a state agency or member of a regional 48 economic development council should abstain from making personnel
49 investments in enterprises which he or she has reason to believe may be 50 directly involved in decisions to be made by him or her or which will 51 otherwise create substantial conflict between his or her duty in the 52 public interest and his or her private interest.

53 h. An officer or employee of a state agency, member of the legislature
54 or legislative employee or member of a regional economic development
55 council should endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not

1 raise suspicion among the public that he or she is likely to be engaged
2 in acts that are in violation of his or her trust.

3 i. No officer or employee of a state agency employed on a full-time
4 basis nor any firm or association of which such an officer or employee 5 is a member nor corporation a substantial portion of the stock of which 6 is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such officer or employ-
7 ee or member of a regional economic development council, should sell 8 goods or services to any person, firm, corporation or association which 9 is licensed or whose rates are fixed by the state agency in which such 10 officer or employee serves or is employed.

11 4. Violations. In addition to any penalty contained in any other 12 provision of law any such officer, member or employee or member of a 13 regional economic development council who shall knowingly and inten-
14 tionally violate any of the provisions of this section may be fined, 15 suspended or removed from office or employment in the manner provided by 16 law. Any such individual who knowingly and intentionally violates the 17 provisions of paragraph b, c, d or i of subdivision three of this 18 section shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed 19 ten thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit
20 received as a result of such violation. Any such individual who knowing-21 ly and intentionally violates the provisions of paragraph a, e or g of 22 subdivision three of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty in 23 an amount not to exceed the value of any gift, compensation or benefit 24 received as a result of such violation.

25 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be 26 deemed repealed two years after such date.
