AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting a manufacturer from labeling or advertising a nonwoven disposable product for sale as a flushable without prior approval

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section
2	391-v to read as follows:
3	§ 391-v. Nonwoven disposable products. 1. For purposes of this
4	section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
5	(a) "Advertised" means representation made by statement, word, design,
б	device, sound or any combination thereof in print or broadcast media.
7	(b) "Flushable", "septic safe", and "sewer safe" means with regard to
8	a nonwoven disposable product, a product that is: (i) able to clear
9	toilets and properly maintained drainage pipe systems under expected
10	product usage conditions; (ii) compatible with wastewater conveyance,
11	treatment, reuse, and disposal systems without causing blockage, clog-
12	ging, or other operational problems; and (iii) unrecognizable in 13	effluent leaving on-site and municipal wastewater treatment systems and
14	in digested sludge from wastewater treatment plants that are applied to
15	soil.
16	(c) "Label" means those representations made through statement, word,
17	picture, design or emblem on a packaging of a nonwoven disposable prod-
18	uct.
19	(d) "Nonwoven disposable product" means any product constructed from 20	nonwoven sheets that is designed for, marketed for, or commonly used for
21	personal hygiene purposes.
22	2. No nonwoven disposable product for sale in any municipality,
23	including a city with a population of a million or more, shall be adver-

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1	tised, packaged or labeled as flushable, sewer safe, or septic safe if
2	such product has not first been approved as flushable by a third party
3	according to rules promulgated by the department of environmental
4	conservation.
5	3. Any person who violates this section shall be subject to a civil б	penalty of not more than five thousand dollars for each violation. Such 7	penalties may be recovered in proceedings before a department of envi-
8	ronmental conservation enforcement hearing, through prosecution by the
9	bureau of consumer frauds and protection, or in any action in any court
10	of appropriate jurisdiction.
11	4. Nothing in this section shall apply to:
12	(a) A television or radio broadcasting station, or to any publisher of 13	a newspaper, magazine or other form of printed advertising, that broad-
14	casts, publishes or prints an advertisement that features a nonwoven
15	disposable product packaged or labeled as flushable, sewer safe, or
16	septic safe; or
17	(b) a wholesaler or retailer that distributes or sells but does not
18	package or label a nonwoven disposable product that is advertised, pack-
19	aged, or labeled as flushable, sewer safe or septic safe.
20	§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall
21	have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or 22	repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of
23	this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed
24	on or before such effective date.
