AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to establishing restrictions on the sale of over-the-counter diet pills and dietary supplements for weight loss or muscle building

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 2 391-oo to read as follows:

3 § 391-oo. Sale of over-the-counter diet pills and dietary supplements
4 for weight loss or muscle building. 1. No person, firm, corporation, 5 partnership, association, limited liability company, or other entity
6 shall sell or offer to sell or give away, as either a retail or whole-7 sale promotion, an over-the-counter diet pill or dietary supplement for 8 weight loss or muscle building within New York state to any person under 9 eighteen years of age unless prescribed or ordered by a health care 10 provider legally authorized to prescribe such pills or supplements under 11 title eight of the education law.

12 2. For purposes of this section the following terms shall have the 13 following meanings:

14 (a) "dietary supplements for weight loss or muscle building" means a 15 class of dietary supplement as defined in section three hundred ninety-16 one-o of this article sold for or used with the intent to achieve weight

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD02670-11-1

1 loss or build muscle, but shall not include protein powders, protein
2 drinks and foods marketed as containing protein unless the protein 3 powder, protein drink or food marketed as containing protein contains an 4 ingredient other than protein which would, considered alone, constitute 5 a dietary supplement for weight loss or muscle building;

6 (b) "over-the-counter diet pills" means a class of drugs, sold for or 7 used with the intent to achieve weight loss or build muscle that are 8 lawfully sold, transferred, or furnished over-the-counter with or with-9 out a prescription pursuant to the federal food, drug, and cosmetic act, 10 21 U.S.C. section 301 et. seq., or regulations adopted thereunder; and

11 (c) "dietary supplements for weight loss or muscle building" and 12 "over-the-counter diet pills" may include, but are not limited to, ther-13 mogens, which are substances that produce heat in the body and promote 14 more calorie burning, lipotropics, which are compounds that help break
15 down fat during body metabolism, hormones, including hormone modulators
16 and hormone mimetics, appetite suppressants, or ingredients deemed adul-
17 terated under 21 U.S.C.A § 342.

18 3. Whenever there shall be a violation of this section, an application 19 may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the 20 state of New York, to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a 21 special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the 22 defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the contin-23 uance of such violation; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of 24 the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this 25 section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining 26 and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any 27 person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such 28 proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as 29 provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three 30 hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitu-
31 tion. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of this 32 section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more 33 than five hundred dollars.

34 § 2. The department of health, in consultation with other state and 35 federal agencies, as appropriate, and relevant stakeholders including, 36 but not limited to, the eating disorders community, shall determine what 37 products constitute over-the-counter diet pills, or dietary supplements 38 for weight loss or muscle building shall have limited accessibility.

39 § 3. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a 40 law.
