2. There is hereby established within the division of veterans' services, in conjunction with the division of military and naval affairs, the staff sergeant Alex R. Jimenez New York state military immigrant family legacy program which shall be jointly developed and implemented by the director of veterans' services and the adjutant general of the division of military and naval affairs, in consultation with the office for new Americans established pursuant to section ninety-four-b of this chapter, and in accordance with the provisions of this section. The primary purpose of the program shall be to assist intended recipients to secure legal immigration status in the United States, including but not limited to, citizenship.

3. Two military immigrant family legacy program coordinators shall be appointed, one appointed by the director of veterans' services and one by the adjutant general of the division of military and naval affairs, to administer the program. Each coordinator shall be a veteran. The coordinators' duties shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) assisting intended recipients who may qualify for adjustment of status, special immigration status through the federal Parole in Place program authorized by section 1758 of the 2020 National Defense Authorization Act, or any other sort of relief that can lead to citizenship.

(b) communication with the director of veterans' services and the adjutant general and the office for new Americans regarding existing policies and regulations pertaining to the needs of intended recipients and to make recommendations regarding the improvement of benefits and services to such intended recipients.

(c) serving as liaison between the divisions, the United States citizenship and immigration services, immigration and customs enforcement, the United States department of veterans affairs, local veterans' service agencies, state agencies, community groups, advocates, and other veterans and military organizations and interested parties.

(d) consulting with qualified immigration attorneys or duly authorized board of immigration appeals approved representatives to facilitate such coordination with the United States citizenship and immigration services or other appropriate agency.

(e) advocating for intended recipients.

(f) developing and maintaining a clearinghouse for information and resources relating to the program.

(g) promoting events and activities that educate and assist intended recipients, including but not limited to, veteran human rights conferences, veterans benefit and resources events.

(h) including the contributions that intended recipients have made on behalf of the United States and this state on the division's official website.

(i) developing information to be made available to congressionally chartered veterans' organizations, and local veterans' services agencies to provide a general overview of the program, including but not limited to, its purpose and the eligibility requirements for adjustment of status, citizenship, or any other form of available relief.

(j) preparing reports on topics, including but not limited to, the demographics of intended recipients, the number of such intended recipients by county, and the unique needs of the intended recipients within New York state to the director, the adjutant general of the division of military and naval affairs and the office for new Americans.

4. The coordinators shall submit a report to the director and to the adjutant general of the division of military and naval affairs on January first each year following the first full year after the effective date of this section. Such report shall include, but not be limited to, a description of the coordinators' activities for the preceding calendar year. The director shall submit the report to the governor and the legislature in accordance with the provisions of section three hundred fifty-three of this article. The adjutant general of the division of military and naval affairs shall submit the report to the governor and the legislature in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred sixty-four of this chapter.

§ 2. Section 353 of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdivision 19-a to read as follows:

19-a. To encourage the development of and provide for the establishment of a state military immigrant family legacy program coordinator, as provided in section three hundred fifty-four-f of this article.

§ 3. The military law is amended by adding a new section 255 to read as follows:

§ 255. State military immigrant family legacy program support. The adjutant general shall encourage the development of and provide for the establishment of a state military immigrant family legacy program coordinator, as provided in section three hundred fifty-four-f of the executive law.

§ 4. Paragraph (l) of subdivision 5 of section 94-b of the executive law, as added by chapter 206 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

(l) (i) Coordinate with other state agencies and otherwise marshal the resources of the state to serve the needs of immigrants, and (ii) advise the state military immigrant family legacy program coordinators pursuant to section three hundred fifty-four-f of this chapter;

§ 5. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.
