Introduced by M. of A. B. MILLER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to penalizing an inmate in a correctional facility for harassing certain employees by fraudulently using the name of any such employee

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 240.32 of the penal law, as amended by section 127-p of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 180 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

§ 240.32 Aggravated harassment of an employee by an inmate.

An inmate or respondent is guilty of aggravated harassment of an employee by an inmate when, with intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm a person in a facility whom he or she knows or reasonably should know to be an employee of such facility or the board of parole or the office of mental health, or a probation department, bureau or unit or a police officer[~~,~~]:

1. he or she causes or attempts to cause such employee to come into contact with blood, seminal fluid, urine, feces, or the contents of a toilet bowl, by throwing, tossing or expelling such fluid or material[~~,~~]; or

2. he or she causes such employee's name to be published in any writing without the permission of such employee or fraudulently uses such employee's name to order magazines or any other product in the name of such employee.

For purposes of this section, "inmate" means an inmate or detainee in a correctional facility, local correctional facility or a hospital, as such term is defined in subdivision two of section four hundred of the correction law. For purposes of this section, "respondent" means a juvenile in a secure facility operated and maintained by the office of chil-
