2	to read as follows:
3	§ 298-b. Enforcement relating to the conduct of owners, agents,

б	three-b or subdivision five of section two hundred ninety-six of this 7	article has occurred, the commissioner shall issue an order which shall

9	1. award compensatory damages to the person aggrieved by such
10	violation;
11	2. to vindicate the public interest, assess a civil penalty: (i) in an

14	practice; (ii) in an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars if the
15	respondent has been adjudged to have committed one other discriminatory
16	practice during the five-year period prior to the date of the filing of
17	the complaint; and (iii) in an amount not exceeding seventy-five thou-
18	sand dollars if the respondent has been adjudged to have committed two

20	prior to the date of the filing of the complaint, except that if the
21	acts constituting the discriminatory practice that is the object of the
22	complaint are committed by the same natural person who has been previ-

1	period of time within which any subsequent discriminatory practice
2	occurred. Any civil penalty imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall
3	not limit the award of damages or other relief available at law or in
4	equity to the person aggrieved by such violation;
5	3. require the respondent to cease and desist from such unlawful
6	discriminatory practices;
7	4. award punitive damages to the person aggrieved by such violation;
8	5. grant such other relief the commissioner deems just and equitable.
9	§ 2. Section 298 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 236 of
10	the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:
11	§ 298. Judicial review and enforcement. 1. Any complainant, respondent
12	or other person aggrieved by an order of the commissioner which is an
13	order after public hearing, a cease and desist order, an order awarding
14	damages, an order dismissing a complaint, or by an order of the division
15	which makes a final disposition of a complaint may obtain judicial
16	review thereof, and the division may obtain an order of court for its
17	enforcement and for the enforcement of any order of the commissioner
18	which has not been appealed to the court, in a proceeding as provided in
19	this section. Such proceeding shall be brought in the supreme court in
20 21	the county wherein the unlawful discriminatory practice which is the subject of the order occurs or wherein any person required in the order
21 22	to cease and desist from an unlawful discriminatory practice or to take
23	other affirmative action resides or transacts business. Such proceeding
24	shall be initiated by the filing of a notice of petition and petition in
25	such court. Thereafter, at a time and in a manner to be specified by
26	rules of court, the division shall file with the court a written tran-
27	script of the record of all prior proceedings. Upon the filing of a
28	notice of petition and petition, the court shall have jurisdiction of
29	the proceeding and of the questions determined therein, except that
30	where the order sought to be reviewed was made as a result of a public
31	hearing held pursuant to paragraph a of subdivision four of section two
32	hundred ninety-seven of this article, the court shall make an order
33	directing that the proceeding be transferred for disposition to the
34	appellate division of the supreme court in the judicial department
35	embracing the county in which the proceeding was commenced. The court
36	shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as
37 38	it deems just and proper, and to make and enter upon the pleadings, testimony, and proceedings set forth in such transcript an order enforc-
30 39	ing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside in whole
40	or in part such order. No objection that has not been urged in prior
41	proceedings shall be considered by the court, unless the failure or
42	neglect to urge such objection shall be excused because of extraordinary
43	circumstances. Any party may move the court to remit the case to the
44	division in the interests of justice for the purpose of adducing addi-
45	tional specified and material evidence and seeking findings thereon,
46	provided he or she shows reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce
47	such evidence in prior proceedings. The findings of facts on which such
48	order is based shall be conclusive if supported by sufficient evidence
49	on the record considered as a whole. All such proceedings shall be heard
50	and determined by the court and any appeal taken from its judgment or
51	order shall be reviewed by the appropriate appellate court as expe-
52	ditiously as possible and with lawful precedence over other matters. The
53	jurisdiction of the courts over these proceedings, as provided for here-
54	in, shall be exclusive and their judgments and orders shall be final,
55 56	subject to appellate review in the same manner and form and with the
56	same effect as provided for appeals from a judgment in a special

1 proceeding. The division's copy of the testimony shall be available at 2 all reasonable times to all parties for examination without cost and for the purposes of judicial review of such order. Any appeal under this 3 section and any proceeding, if instituted under article seventy-eight of 4 5 the civil practice law and rules to which the division or the board is a б party shall be heard on the record without requirement of printing. The division may appear in court by one of its attorneys. A proceeding under 7 this section when instituted by any complainant, respondent or other 8 9 person aggrieved must be instituted within sixty days after the service 10 of such order. In cases of housing discrimination only, a complaint 11 dismissed after investigation for lack of jurisdiction or lack of proba-12 ble cause may either be appealed pursuant to this section or the same cause of action may be filed in a court of appropriate jurisdiction 13 14 pursuant to section two hundred ninety-seven of this article.

15 2. In an action filed by the attorney general pursuant to subdivision 16 twelve of section sixty-three of this chapter, in addition to any other 17 available relief, a court may, to vindicate the public interest, assess 18 a civil penalty against the respondent in an amount that does not exceed 19 the following:

20 (a) If the defendant is a natural person, (i) fifty thousand dollars 21 for a first violation, and (ii) one hundred thousand dollars for a 22 second or subsequent violation.

23 (b) If the defendant is a corporate entity, (i) one hundred thousand 24 dollars for a first violation and (ii) two hundred fifty thousand 25 dollars for a second or subsequent violation.

26 § 3. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same 27 manner as section 2 of chapter 236 of the laws of 2020, takes effect.
