54 prior finding by a court that such person has previously committed an 55 act which, if committed by an adult, would be the crime of assault in 56 the second degree, robbery in the second degree or any designated felony act specified in paragraph (i), (ii), or (iii) of this subdivision regardless of the age of such person at the time of the commission of the prior act; (vi) other than a misdemeanor committed by a person at least ~~[seven but less than seventeen years of age, and commencing October first, two thousand nineteen, a person at least seven]~~ twelve but less than eighteen years of age, but only where there ~~[has]~~ have been two prior findings by the court that such person has committed a prior felony.

§ 3. Subdivision 3 of section 304.1 of the family court act, as amended by section 59 of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

3. The detention of a child under ~~[ten]~~ thirteen years of age in a secure detention facility shall not be directed under any of the provisions of this article, unless such child is at least ten years old and is considered a juvenile delinquent pursuant to paragraph (ii) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of this article.

§ 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 306.1 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 645 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:

(a) the child is ~~[eleven]~~ at least twelve years of age ~~[or older]~~ and the crime which is the subject of the arrest or which is charged in the petition constitutes a class A or B felony; or

§ 5. Subdivision 12 of section 308.1 of the family court act, as added by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

12. The probation service shall certify to the division of criminal justice services and to the appropriate police department or law enforcement agency whenever it adjusts a case in which the potential respondent's fingerprints were taken pursuant to section 306.1 in any manner other than the filing of a petition for juvenile delinquency for an act which, if committed by an adult, would constitute a felony, provided, however, in the case of a child ~~[eleven or]~~ twelve years of age, such certification shall be made only if the act would constitute a class A or B felony.

(f) make restitution or perform services for the public good pursuant to section 353.6~~[, provided the respondent is over ten years of age]~~;

§ 7. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 353.6 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 877 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion of the dispositional hearing ~~[in cases involving respondents over ten years of age]~~ the court may:

§ 8. Subdivisions 1, 2, 6 and 7 of section 354.1 of the family court act, subdivision 1 as added by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982 and subdivisions 2, 6 and 7 as amended by chapter 645 of the laws of 1996, are amended to read as follows:

1. If a person whose fingerprints, palmprints or photographs were taken pursuant to section 306.1 or was initially fingerprinted as a juvenile offender and the action is subsequently removed to a family court pursuant to article seven hundred twenty-five of the criminal procedure law is adjudicated to be a juvenile delinquent for a felony, the family court shall forward or cause to be forwarded to the division of criminal justice services notification of such adjudication and such related information as may be required by such division, provided, however, in the case of a person ~~[eleven or]~~ twelve years of age such

1 notification shall be provided only if the act upon which the adjudication is based would constitute a class A or B felony.

3 2. If a person whose fingerprints, palmprints or photographs were 4 taken pursuant to section 306.1 or was initially fingerprinted as a 5 juvenile offender and the action is subsequently removed to family court 6 pursuant to article seven hundred twenty-five of the criminal procedure 7 law has had all petitions disposed of by the family court in any manner 8 other than an adjudication of juvenile delinquency for a felony, but in 9 the case of acts committed when such person was [~~eleven-or~~] twelve years
10 of age which would constitute a class A or B felony only, all such fingerprints, palmprints, photographs, and copies thereof, and all information relating to such allegations obtained by the division of criminal justice services pursuant to section 306.1 shall be destroyed forthwith. The clerk of the court shall notify the commissioner of the division of criminal justice services and the heads of all police departments and law enforcement agencies having copies of such records, who shall destroy such records without unnecessary delay.

48
49
50 (a) A social services official shall provide preventive services to a 51 child and his or her family, in accordance with the family's service 52 plan as required by section four hundred nine-e of this chapter and the 53 social services district's child welfare services plan submitted and 54 approved pursuant to section four hundred nine-d of this chapter, upon a 55 finding by such official that (i) the child will be placed, returned to 56 or continued in foster care unless such services are provided and that

1 it is reasonable to believe that by providing such services the child 2 will be able to remain with or be returned to his or her family, and for 3 a former foster care youth under the age of twenty-one who was previous-4 ly placed in the care and custody or custody and guardianship of the 5 local commissioner of social services or other officer, board or depart-6 ment authorized to receive children as public charges where it is 7 reasonable to believe that by providing such services the former foster 8 care youth will avoid a return to foster care or (ii) the child is the 9 subject of a petition under article seven of the family court act~~[, or~~ 10 ~~has been determined by the assessment service established pursuant to~~ 11 ~~section two hundred forty three a of the executive law,]~~ or by the 12 probation service ~~[where no such assessment service has been desig-~~ 13 ~~nated]~~, to be at risk of being the subject of such a petition, and the 14 social services official determines that the child is at risk of place-15 ment into foster care or (iii) the child is under the age of twelve, the 16 child does not fall under the definition of a juvenile delinquent pursu-17 ant to paragraph (ii) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family 18 court act and but for their age, their behavior would bring them within 19 the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article three of the 20 family court act, and the social services official determines that the 21 child is at risk of placement into foster care. Such finding shall be 22 entered in the child's uniform case record established and maintained 23 pursuant to section four hundred nine-f of this ~~chapter~~ article. The 24 commissioner shall promulgate regulations to assist social services 25 officials in making determinations of eligibility for mandated preven-26 tive services pursuant to this subparagraph.

27 § 10. Article 6 of the social services law is amended by adding a new 28 title 12-A to read as follows:

29 TITLE 12-A

30 DIFFERENTIAL RESPONSE PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN UNDER TWELVE

31 Section 458-o. Differential response programs for children under twelve.

32 § 458-o. Differential response programs for children under twelve. 1.
33 Each local social services district, upon the approval of the office of 34 children and family services, shall establish a program that implements 35 differential responses to provide services to children under twelve 36 years of age, who do not fall under the definition of juvenile delin-37 quent pursuant to paragraph (ii) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of 38 the family court act and whose behavior, but for their age, would bring 39 them within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article 40 three of the family court act. Such programs shall establish and utilize 41 appropriate assessments and services for youth, in order to help reduce 42 future interaction with the juvenile justice and/or child welfare 43 systems. Such assessments shall be used to determine what, if any, 44 services are needed, and such services shall utilize the least restric-45 tive intervention protocols available. Notwithstanding any other 46 provision of law to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall 47 apply only to those cases involving children under twelve years of age, 48 who do not fall under the definition of juvenile delinquent pursuant to 49 paragraph (ii) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court 50 act and whose behavior, but for their age, would bring them within the 51 jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article three of the family 52 court act.

53 2. To establish a differential response program, each local social 54 services district, as part of their district-wide child welfare services 55 plan, as defined in section four hundred nine-d of this article, shall 56 include a plan to serve the youth described in subdivision one of this

1 section while utilizing certain criteria to be promulgated in regulation 2 by the office of children and family services including but not limited 3 to the following:

4 (a) the types of assessment to determine whether services are neces-
5 sary, services and interventions to be provided to children and families 6 included in the differential response program for such children and a 7 description of how the services will be offered. Such services shall 8 include, but not be limited to, those services set forth in section four 9 hundred nine-a of this article and section four hundred fifty-eight-m of 10 this article;

11 (b) a description of the process to be followed for planning and moni-12 toring the services provided under the differential responses;

13 (c) a description of how the differential response program will 14 enhance the ability of the district to reduce future interactions with 15 the juvenile justice and child welfare systems, ensure the safety and 16 well-being of such children, and ways to ensure such program addresses 17 adverse impacts on minority communities;

18 (d) a description of the training that will be provided to district
19 and any non-district staff to be used in the differential response 20 program including, but not limited to, a description of the training set 21 forth in section eight hundred forty of the executive law for police 22 officers whose main responsibilities are juveniles and the laws pertain-23 ing thereto; and 24 (e) a description of any additional funding that may be utilized to 25 enhance the differential response program.

26 3. (a) All records created as part of the differential response 27 program for children described in subdivision one of this section shall 28 include, but not be limited to, the initial and any subsequent reasons 29 why a differential response is recommended for a child, documentation of 30 all services offered and accepted by such child and their family, the 31 plan for supportive services for the child and their family, and all 32 evaluations and assessments of the child's progress.

33 (b) Records created under the differential response program for the 34 children described in subdivision one of this section shall be main-35 tained for five years after a child is referred to a local social 36 services district for intervention as described in this section or until 37 the child reaches the age of twelve, whichever is sooner.

38 (c) All reports assigned to, and records created under, the differen-39 tial response program, including but not limited to reports made or 40 written as well as any other information obtained or photographs taken 41 concerning such reports or records shall be confidential, shall be made 42 available only to an entity listed below which has been involved in the 43 particular youth's service delivery, and shall not be redisclosed, 44 except as authorized pursuant to subparagraph (vi) of this paragraph, 45 utilizing non-identifying aggregated information. Such entities shall 46 include:

47 (i) staff of the office of children and family services and persons 48 designated by the office of children and family services;

49 (ii) the social services district responsible for the differential 50 response program for children described in subdivision one of this 51 section;

52 (iii) a community-based agency that has a contract with the social 53 services district to carry out activities for the district under the 54 differential response program;

55 (iv) a provider of services under the differential response program;

1 (v) the child, or to their parent or legal guardian, and the attorney 2 for the child; and

3 (vi) the office of children and family services and social services 4 districts for the sole purpose of preparing the report required pursuant 5 to subdivision five of this section.

6 4. Expenditures by a social services district pursuant to this section 7 shall be reimbursable from the annual appropriations available for 8 social services district expenditures for child welfare services which 9 shall include, but not be limited to, preventive services provided 10 pursuant to section four hundred nine-a of this article, funding for 11 family support services programs as set forth in section four hundred 12 fifty-eight-n of this article and supervision and treatment services for 13 juveniles program as set forth in section five hundred twenty-nine-b of 14 the executive law. Nothing shall preclude a social services district 15 from seeking private funds for support of their differential response 16 programs.

17 5. The office of children and family services shall report on the 18 differential response programs established pursuant to this section, 19 including the local social services district's efforts to reduce future 20 interactions with the juvenile justice and child welfare systems, how 21 the local social services districts are ensuring the safety and well-be-22 ing of such children, and how the program is addressing adverse impacts 23 on minority communities, on an annual basis beginning one year from the 24 start of every local social services district's differential response 25 program.

26 § 11. Subdivision 1 of section 458-m of the social services law, as 27 added by section 18-b of part K of chapter 56 of the laws of 2019, is 28 amended to read as follows:

29 1. As used in this title, the term "family support services programs" 30 shall mean a program established pursuant to this title to provide 31 community-based supportive services to children and families with the 32 goal of (i) preventing a child from being adjudicated a person in need 33 of supervision and help prevent the out of home placements of such youth 34 or (ii) preventing a petition from being filed under article seven of 35 the family court act, or (iii) to help reduce future interaction with 36 the juvenile justice and/or child welfare system for children under 37 twelve years of age, who do not fall under the definition of juvenile 38 delinquent pursuant to paragraph (ii) of subdivision one of section
39 301.2 of the family court act and whose behavior, but for their age
40 would bring them within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to 41 article three of the family court act.

42 § 12. Paragraph (j) of subdivision 1 of section 840 of the executive 43 law, as amended by chapter 617 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read 44 as follows:

45 (j) (1) Development, maintenance and dissemination of written policies 46 and procedures pursuant to title six of article six of the social 47 services law and applicable provisions of article ten of the family 48 court act, regarding the mandatory reporting of child abuse or neglect, 49 reporting procedures and obligations of persons required to report, 50 provisions for taking a child into protective custody, mandatory report-51 ing of deaths, immunity from liability, penalties for failure to report 52 and obligations for the provision of services and procedures necessary 53 to safeguard the life or health of the child; (2) establishment and 54 implementation on an ongoing basis, of a training program for all 55 current and new police officers regarding the policies and procedures 56 established pursuant to this paragraph; and (3) establishment of a

1 training program for police officers whose main responsibilities are 2 juveniles and the laws pertaining thereto, including children under 3 twelve years of age who do not fall under the definition of juvenile 4 delinquent pursuant to paragraph (ii) of subdivision one of section
5 301.2 of the family court act and whose behavior, but for their age
6 would bring them within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to 7 article three of the family court act, which training program shall be 8 successfully completed before such officers are accredited pursuant to 9 section eight hundred forty-six-h of this chapter.

10 § 13. Subdivision 4 of section 502 of the executive law, as amended by 11 section 79 of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to 12 read as follows:

13 4. For purposes of this article, the term "youth" shall mean a person 14 not less than [~~seven~~] twelve years of age and not more than [~~twenty or~~ 15 ~~commencing October first, two thousand nineteen, not more than~~] twenty-16 two years of age, unless such youth is over the age of seven and less 17 than twelve years and is considered a juvenile delinquent pursuant to 18 paragraph (ii) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court 19 act.

20 § 14. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 507-a of the executive 21 law, as amended by section 80 of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 22 2017, is amended to read as follows:

23 (a) Consistent with other provisions of law, only those youth who have 24 reached the age of [~~seven~~] twelve but who have not reached the age of 25 twenty-one, unless such youth is over the age of seven and less than 26 twelve years of age and is considered a juvenile delinquent pursuant to 27 paragraph (ii) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court 28 act, may be placed in the custody of the office of children and family 29 services. Except as provided for in paragraph (a-1) of this subdivision, 30 no youth who has reached the age of twenty-one may remain in custody of 31 the office of children and family services.

32 § 15. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a 33 law; provided, however, that the amendments to subparagraph (ii) of 34 paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 409-a of the social services 35 law made by section nine of this act shall not affect the expiration of 36 such subparagraph and shall be deemed to expire therewith.
