1 a reasonable time thereafter. The district attorney prosecuting the 2 charges may file and obtain the requested relief on behalf of the 3 impounding organization if requested to do so by the impounding organ-
4 ization. The security shall be in an amount sufficient to secure payment 5 for all reasonable expenses expected to be incurred by the impounding
6 organization in caring and providing for the animal pending disposition
7 of the charges. Reasonable expenses shall include, but not be limited 8 to, estimated medical care and boarding of the animal for at least thir-
9 ty days. The amount of the security, if any, shall be determined by the 10 court after taking into consideration all of the facts and circumstances 11 of the case including, but not limited to the recommendation of the 12 impounding organization having custody and care of the seized animal and 13 the cost of caring for the animal. If a security has been posted in 14 accordance with this section, the impounding organization may draw from 15 the security the actual reasonable costs to be incurred by such organ-16 ization in caring for the seized animal.

17 (1) Upon receipt of a petition pursuant to paragraph a of this subdi-
18 vision the court shall set a hearing on the petition to be conducted
19 within ten business days of the filing of such petition. The petitioner 20 shall serve a true copy of the petition upon the defendant and the 21 district attorney if the district attorney has not filed the petition on 22 behalf of the petitioner. If the petition is filed after the issuance 23 of an appearance ticket but prior to arraignment on charges, service may 24 be effectuated by serving a true copy thereof personally upon the 25 defendant, or by sending a true copy thereof by certified mail to the 26 address of the defendant. The petitioner shall also serve a true copy of 27 the petition on any interested person. For purposes of this subdivision, 28 interested person shall mean an individual, partnership, firm, joint 29 stock company, corporation, association, trust, estate or other legal 30 entity who the court determines may have [a] an ownership or pecuniary 31 interest in the animal which is the subject of the petition. Provided, 32 that, if a petition is filed after the issuance of an appearance ticket 33 but prior to arraignment on charges, and the defendant does not have 34 counsel at the time of arraignment, the court may assign counsel for 35 purposes of the petition if such defendant is otherwise eligible for 36 appointed counsel for the underlying criminal offense. The petitioner or 37 the district attorney acting on behalf of the petitioner, shall have the 38 burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the [person 39 ~~from whom the animal was seized~~] defendant violated a provision of this 40 article. The court may waive for good cause shown the posting of securi-41 ty.

42 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 43 have become a law.
