AN ACT to amend the executive law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to statements to the state board of parole

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 130 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

(A) Discretionary release on parole shall not be granted merely as a 5 reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties while confined but after considering if there is a reasonable probability that, if such inmate is released, he will live and remain at liberty 8 without violating the law, and that his release is not incompatible with the welfare of society and will not so deprecate the seriousness of his 10 crime as to undermine respect for law. In making the parole release 11 decision, the procedures adopted pursuant to subdivision four of section two hundred fifty-nine-c of this article shall require that the following be considered: (i) the institutional record including program goals 13 and accomplishments, academic achievements, vocational education, train-14 ing or work assignments, therapy and interactions with staff and 15 16 inmates; (ii) performance, if any, as a participant in a temporary 17 release program; (iii) release plans including community resources, 18 employment, education and training and support services available to the inmate; (iv) any deportation order issued by the federal government 19 20 against the inmate while in the custody of the department and any recommendation regarding deportation made by the commissioner of the depart-22 ment pursuant to section one hundred forty-seven of the correction law;

The board shall provide toll free telephone access 17 for crime victims. In the case of an oral statement made in accordance with subdivision one of section 440.50 of the criminal procedure law, 18 the parole board member shall present a written report of the statement 19 20 to the parole board. A crime victim's representative shall mean the 21 crime victim's closest surviving relative, the committee or quardian of 22 such person, or the legal representative of any such person. statement submitted by the victim or victim's representative may include 23 information concerning threatening or intimidating conduct toward the 24 victim, the victim's representative, or the victim's family, made by the 25 26 person sentenced and occurring after the sentencing. Such information 27 may include, but need not be limited to, the threatening or intimidating conduct of any other person who or which is directed by the person 28 29 sentenced. Any statement by a victim or the victim's representative made 30 to the board shall be maintained by the department in the file provided 31 to the board when interviewing the inmate in consideration of release. A 32 victim or victim's representative who has submitted a written request to 33 the department for the transcript of such interview shall be provided 34 such transcript as soon as it becomes available. 35

- § 2. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 259-i of the executive law, as separately amended by chapters 40 and 126 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as follows:
- (B) Where a crime victim or victim's representative as defined in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph [, or other person] submits to the parole board a written statement concerning the release of an inmate, such statement shall be deemed confidential and shall only be made available to the parole board [shall keep that individual's name and address confidential] for use in rendering parole decisions.
- $\S$  3. Subdivision 1 of section 440.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 193 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. Upon the request of a victim of a crime, or in any event in all cases in which the final disposition includes a conviction of a violent felony offense as defined in section 70.02 of the penal law, a felony defined in article one hundred twenty-five of such law, or a felony defined in article one hundred thirty of such law, the district attorney shall, within sixty days of the final disposition of the case, inform the victim by letter of such final disposition. If such final disposition results in the commitment of the defendant to the custody of the department of corrections and community supervision for an indeterminate sentence, the notice provided to the crime victim shall also inform the
