3. The superintendent shall search the federal no-fly list or terrorist screening database at least once each year and upon a finding that a firearm license holder is on such a list, the superintendent shall immediately notify all appropriate law enforcement agencies and shall direct the state police to remove any and all such firearms until such time that the individual is no longer on the federal no-fly list or terrorist screening database.

- § 5. Section 223 of the executive law, as amended by section 3-b of part MM of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:
- 11 § 223. Duties and powers of the superintendent of state police and of members of the state police. 1. It shall be the duty of the superinten-12 dent of the state police and of members of the state police to prevent 13 14 and detect crime and apprehend criminals. They shall also be subject to 15 the call of the governor and are empowered to co-operate with any other 16 department of the state or with local authorities. They shall also collect and analyze information relating to prevention and detection of 17 terrorist threats and terrorist activities throughout the state and 18 share all such information subject to paragraph (g) of subdivision two 19 20 section seven hundred nine of this chapter among the division of 21 homeland security and emergency services and local, state, and federal 22 law enforcement agencies to ensure the coordination of appropriate intelligence to assist in the early identification of and response to 23 24 potential terrorist threats and terrorist activities. They shall have 25 power to arrest, without a warrant, any person committing or attempting 26 to commit within their presence or view a breach of the peace or other 27 violation of law, to serve and execute warrants of arrest or search issued by proper authority and to exercise all other powers of police 28 29 officers of the state of New York. Any such warrants issued by any 30 magistrate of the state may be executed by them in any part of the state 31 according to the tenor thereof without [indorsement] endorsement. But 32 they shall not exercise their powers within the limits of any city to 33 suppress rioting and disorder except by direction of the governor or upon the request of the mayor of the city with the approval of the 34 35 governor. Any member of the rank of sergeant or above may take pre-arr-36 aignment bail from any defendant in the amounts and under the circum-37 stances and conditions that police may take bail.
 - 2. The superintendent shall search the federal no-fly list or terrorist screening database at least once each year and upon a finding that a firearm license holder is on such a list, the superintendent shall immediately notify all appropriate law enforcement agencies and shall direct the state police to remove any and all such firearms until such time that the individual is no longer on the federal no-fly list or terrorist screening database.
 - § 6. The superintendent of state police and the commissioner of criminal justice services shall promulgate any regulations necessary for the provisions of this act to take effect.
- 48 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately; provided however, the 49 provisions of this act shall not take effect until the superintendent of state police receives approval to access the information on the federal 50 no-fly list or terrorist screening database from the relevant federal 51 agencies; provided further that the amendments to section 223 of the 52 executive law made by section four of this act shall be subject to the 54 expiration and reversion of such section pursuant to section 3 of chapter 428 of the laws of 1999, as amended, when upon such date the 55 provisions of section five of this act shall take effect; provided that
