Introduced by M. of A. MONTESANO, J. M. GIGLIO, GOODELL, HAWLEY -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. BARCLAY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law and the state finance law, in relation to authorizing superintendents and schools to purchase certain material goods and supplies independently

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 305 of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 57 to read as follows:

57. The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to enable superintendents and schools to purchase material goods and supplies directly from vendors or suppliers when such products are available at prices or other terms more economically beneficial for the purposes of the acquiring superintendent or school.

§ 2. Paragraph (i) of subdivision 5 of section 163 of the state finance law, as amended by section 9 of part L of chapter 55 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:

(i) For commodities, upon such determination of need, state agencies shall ascertain whether the commodity is available in the form, function and utility consistent with their needs from preferred sources and if so, shall purchase said commodity from a preferred source in accordance with the provisions of this article. If not so available, state agencies shall determine whether the commodity is available in the form, function and utility consistent with their needs on a centralized contract and if so, except as provided in subparagraph (v) of paragraph a of subdivision three of this section, shall purchase said commodity using the centralized contract, provided, however, that superintendents and schools may procure such commodities independently in accordance with regulations established by the commissioner of education as provided for in subdivision forty-three of section three hundred five of the education law. If
