Introduced by M. of A. GLICK, LUPARDO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to prohibiting the slaughtering of horses for human consumption

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new section 382 to read as follows:

- § 382. Prohibition of slaughtering horses for human consumption. 1. 4 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it shall be unlawful for any person to slaughter or have another person slaughter a horse where such person knows or should know that any part of such horse will be used for human consumption.
- 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it shall be unlawful 8 9 for any person to possess, to import into or export from the state, to 10 sell, buy, give away, hold, or accept any horse with the intent of killing, or having another kill, such horse, if such person knows or should 11 have known that any part of such horse will be used for human consump-12 tion. 13
- 14 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it shall be unlawful 15 for any person to sell at retail, barter, offer to sell at retail or barter, give away, or purchase at retail horseflesh, if such person 16 knows or should know that any of the horseflesh will be used for human 17 18 consumption.
- 19 4. It shall be unlawful for any person to possess horseflesh with the 20 intent to sell such horseflesh at retail for the purpose of human 21 consumption.
- 22 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it shall be unlawful 23 for any person to import into or export from this state, live horses where such person knows or should know that such horse is intended for 25 slaughter for human consumption.
