§ 216.05 Judicial diversion program; court procedures.

1. At any time after the arraignment of an eligible defendant, but prior to the entry of a plea of guilty or the commencement of trial, the court at the request of the eligible defendant, may order an alcohol and substance [~~abuse~~] use evaluation. An eligible defendant may decline to participate in such an evaluation at any time. The defendant shall provide a written authorization, in compliance with the requirements of any applicable state or federal laws, rules or regulations authorizing disclosure of the results of the assessment to the defendant's attorney,

1 the prosecutor, the local probation department, the court, authorized 2 court personnel and other individuals specified in such authorization 3 for the sole purpose of determining whether the defendant should be 4 offered judicial diversion for treatment for substance [~~abuse or depend-~~ 5 ~~ence~~] use, alcohol [~~abuse or dependence~~] use and any co-occurring mental 6 disorder or mental illness.

7 2. Upon receipt of the completed alcohol and substance [~~abuse~~] use 8 evaluation report, the court shall provide a copy of the report to the 9 eligible defendant and the prosecutor.

10 3. (a) Upon receipt of the evaluation report either party may request 11 a hearing on the issue of whether the eligible defendant should be 12 offered alcohol or substance [~~abuse~~] use treatment pursuant to this 13 article. At such a proceeding, which shall be held as soon as practica-14 ble so as to facilitate early intervention in the event that the defend-15 ant is found to need alcohol or substance [~~abuse~~] use treatment, the 16 court may consider oral and written arguments, may take testimony from 17 witnesses offered by either party, and may consider any relevant 18 evidence including, but not limited to, evidence that:

19 (i) the defendant had within the preceding ten years (excluding any 20 time during which the offender was incarcerated for any reason between 21 the time of the acts that led to the youthful offender adjudication and 22 the time of commission of the present offense) been adjudicated a youth-23 ful offender for: (A) a violent felony offense as defined in section 24 70.02 of the penal law; or (B) any offense for which a merit time allow-25 ance is not available pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d) of 26 subdivision one of section eight hundred three of the correction law; 27 and

28 (ii) in the case of a felony offense defined in subdivision [~~four~~] 29 five of section 410.91 of this chapter, or section 165.10, 165.11, 30 190.79 or 190.80 of the penal law, any statement of or submitted by the 31 victim, as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section 380.50 32 of this chapter.

33 (b) Upon completion of such a proceeding, the court shall consider and 34 make findings of fact with respect to whether:

35 (i) the defendant is an eligible defendant as defined in subdivision
36 one of section 216.00 of this article;

37 (ii) the defendant has a history of alcohol or substance [~~abuse or~~ 38 ~~dependence~~] use;

39 (iii) such alcohol or substance [~~abuse or dependence~~] use is a 40 contributing factor to the defendant's criminal behavior;

41 (iv) the defendant's participation in judicial diversion could effec-42 tively address such [~~abuse or dependence~~] use; and

43 (v) institutional confinement of the defendant is or may not be neces-44 sary for the protection of the public.

45 4. When an authorized court determines, pursuant to paragraph (b) of 46 subdivision three of this section, that an eligible defendant should be 47 offered alcohol or substance [~~abuse~~] use treatment, or when the parties 48 and the court agree to an eligible defendant's participation in alcohol 49 or substance [~~abuse~~] use treatment, an eligible defendant may be allowed 50 to participate in the judicial diversion program offered by this arti-
51 cle. Prior to the court's issuing an order granting judicial diversion, 52 the eligible defendant shall be required to enter a plea of guilty to 53 the charge or charges; provided, however, that no such guilty plea shall 54 be required when:

55 (a) the people and the court consent to the entry of such an order 56 without a plea of guilty; or

(b) based on a finding of exceptional circumstances, the court determines that a plea of guilty shall not be required. For purposes of this subdivision, exceptional circumstances exist when, regardless of the ultimate disposition of the case, the entry of a plea of guilty is likely to result in severe collateral consequences.

5. The defendant shall agree on the record or in writing to abide by the release conditions set by the court, which, shall include: participation in a specified period of alcohol or substance ~~abuse~~ use treatment at a specified program or programs identified by the court, which may include periods of detoxification, residential or outpatient treatment, or both, as determined after taking into account the views of the health care professional who conducted the alcohol and substance ~~abuse~~ use evaluation and any health care professionals responsible for providing such treatment or monitoring the defendant's progress in such treatment; and may include: (i) periodic court appearances, which may include periodic urinalysis; (ii) a requirement that the defendant refrain from engaging in criminal behaviors; (iii) if the defendant needs treatment for opioid ~~abuse or dependence~~ use, that he or she may participate in and receive medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice, provided that no court shall require the use of any specified type or brand of drug during the course of medically prescribed drug treatments.

6. Upon an eligible defendant's agreement to abide by the conditions set by the court, the court shall issue a securing order providing for bail or release on the defendant's own recognizance and conditioning any release upon the agreed upon conditions. The period of alcohol or substance ~~abuse~~ use treatment shall begin as specified by the court and as soon as practicable after the defendant's release, taking into account the availability of treatment, so as to facilitate early intervention with respect to the defendant's ~~abuse~~ substance use or condition and the effectiveness of the treatment program. In the event that a treatment program is not immediately available or becomes unavailable during the course of the defendant's participation in the judicial diversion program, the court may release the defendant pursuant to the securing order.

7. When participating in judicial diversion treatment pursuant to this article, any resident of this state who is covered under a private health insurance policy or contract issued for delivery in this state pursuant to article thirty-two, forty-three or forty-seven of the insurance law or article forty-four of the public health law, or who is covered by a self-funded plan which provides coverage for the diagnosis and treatment of chemical abuse and chemical dependence however defined in such policy; shall first seek reimbursement for such treatment in accordance with the provisions of such policy or contract.

8. During the period of a defendant's participation in the judicial diversion program, the court shall retain jurisdiction of the defendant, provided, however, that the court may allow such defendant to (i) reside in another jurisdiction, or (ii) participate in alcohol and substance ~~abuse~~ use treatment and other programs in the jurisdiction where the defendant resides or in any other jurisdiction, while participating in a judicial diversion program under conditions set by the court and agreed to by the defendant pursuant to subdivisions five and six of this section. The court may require the defendant to appear in court at any time to enable the court to monitor the defendant's progress in alcohol or substance ~~abuse~~ use treatment. The court shall provide notice,

1 reasonable under the circumstances, to the people, the treatment provid-2 er, the defendant and the defendant's counsel whenever it orders or 3 otherwise requires the appearance of the defendant in court. Failure to 4 appear as required without reasonable cause therefor shall constitute a 5 violation of the conditions of the court's agreement with the defendant.

6 9. (a) If at any time during the defendant's participation in the 7 judicial diversion program, the court has reasonable grounds to believe 8 that the defendant has violated a release condition in an important 9 respect or has willfully failed to appear before the court as requested, 10 the court except as provided in subdivision two of section 510.50 of 11 this chapter regarding a failure to appear, shall direct the defendant 12 to appear or issue a bench warrant to a police officer or an appropriate 13 peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custody 14 and bring the defendant before the court without unnecessary delay; 15 provided, however, that under no circumstances shall a defendant who 16 requires treatment for opioid [~~abuse or dependence~~] use be deemed to 17 have violated a release condition on the basis of his or her partic-18 ipation in medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a 19 health care professional licensed or certified under title eight of the 20 education law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice. The 21 relevant provisions of section 530.60 of this chapter relating to issu-22 ance of securing orders shall apply to such proceedings under this 23 subdivision.

24 (b) In determining whether a defendant violated a condition of his or 25 her release under the judicial diversion program, the court may conduct 26 a summary hearing consistent with due process and sufficient to satisfy 27 the court that the defendant has, in fact, violated the condition.

28 (c) If the court determines that the defendant has violated a condi-29 tion of his or her release under the judicial diversion program, the 30 court may modify the conditions thereof, reconsider the order of recog-31 nizance or bail pursuant to subdivision two of section 510.30 of this 32 chapter, or terminate the defendant's participation in the judicial 33 diversion program; and when applicable proceed with the defendant's 34 sentencing in accordance with the agreement. Notwithstanding any 35 provision of law to the contrary, the court may impose any sentence
36 authorized for the crime of conviction in accordance with the plea
37 agreement, or any lesser sentence authorized to be imposed on a felony 38 drug offender pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of subdivision two of 39 section 70.70 of the penal law taking into account the length of time
40 the defendant spent in residential treatment and how best to continue 41 treatment while the defendant is serving that sentence. In determining 42 what action to take for a violation of a release condition, the court 43 shall consider all relevant circumstances, including the views of the 44 prosecutor, the defense and the alcohol or substance [~~abuse~~] use treat-45 ment provider, and the extent to which persons who ultimately success-46 fully complete a drug treatment regimen sometimes relapse by not 47 abstaining from alcohol or substance [~~abuse~~] use or by failing to comply 48 fully with all requirements imposed by a treatment program. The court 49 shall also consider using a system of graduated and appropriate
50 responses or sanctions designed to address such inappropriate behaviors, 51 protect public safety and facilitate, where possible, successful 52 completion of the alcohol or substance [~~abuse~~] use treatment program.

53 (d) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as preventing a 54 court from terminating a defendant's participation in the judicial 55 diversion program for violating a release condition when such a termi-56 nation is necessary to preserve public safety. Nor shall anything in

1 this subdivision be construed as precluding the prosecution of a defend-2 ant for the commission of a different offense while participating in the 3 judicial diversion program.

4 (e) A defendant may at any time advise the court that he or she wishes 5 to terminate participation in the judicial diversion program, at which 6 time the court shall proceed with the case and, where applicable, shall 7 impose sentence in accordance with the plea agreement. Notwithstanding 8 any provision of law to the contrary, the court may impose any sentence
9 authorized for the crime of conviction in accordance with the plea
10 agreement, or any lesser sentence authorized to be imposed on a felony
11 drug offender pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of subdivision two of 12 section 70.70 of the penal law taking into account the length of time
13 the defendant spent in residential treatment and how best to continue 14 treatment while the defendant is serving that sentence.

15 10. Upon the court's determination that the defendant has successfully 16 completed the required period of alcohol or substance [abuse] use treat-17 ment and has otherwise satisfied the conditions required for successful 18 completion of the judicial diversion program, the court shall comply 19 with the terms and conditions it set for final disposition when it 20 accepted the defendant's agreement to participate in the judicial diver-
21 sion program. Such disposition may include, but is not limited to: (a) 22 requiring the defendant to undergo a period of interim probation super-23 vision and, upon the defendant's successful completion of the interim 24 probation supervision term, notwithstanding the provision of any other 25 law, permitting the defendant to withdraw his or her guilty plea and 26 dismissing the indictment; or (b) requiring the defendant to undergo a 27 period of interim probation supervision and, upon successful completion 28 of the interim probation supervision term, notwithstanding the provision 29 of any other law, permitting the defendant to withdraw his or her guilty 30 plea, enter a guilty plea to a misdemeanor offense and sentencing the 31 defendant as promised in the plea agreement, which may include a period 32 of probation supervision pursuant to section 65.00 of the penal law; or 33 (c) allowing the defendant to withdraw his or her guilty plea and 34 dismissing the indictment.

35 11. Nothing in this article shall be construed as restricting or 36 prohibiting courts or district attorneys from using other lawful proce-37 dures or models for placing appropriate persons into alcohol or 38 substance [abuse] use treatment.

39 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, that the amend-40 ments to the opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 216.00 of the 41 criminal procedure law made by section one of this act shall be subject 42 to the expiration and reversion of such paragraph pursuant to section 12 43 of chapter 90 of the laws of 2014, as amended, when upon such date the 44 provisions of section two of this act shall take effect.
