AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to prohibiting the termination of tenancy in certain housing occupied by senior citizens and/or persons with disabilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 1 2 228-a to read as follows: 3 § 228-a. Tenancy in rental buildings; senior citizens; persons with 4 disabilities. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section two hundred 5 twenty-eight of this article or any other provision to the contrary, if substantially all of the lessees or tenants occupying units in a rental б 7 building are over sixty-five years of age and/or are persons with disa-8 bilities, the lessor may not terminate or fail to renew a lease for 9 premises in such building or terminate a tenancy at will or at suffer-10 ance, except for cause involving actions of the tenant that violate the 11 terms of the lease, such as the non-payment of rent, without the prior 12 approval of a court of competent jurisdiction. In determining whether 13 to grant approval, the court shall consider factors including: whether 14 the lessor is operating the rental building at a profit or loss; the 15 need for any major capital repairs or improvements that cannot be performed while the tenants are in occupancy; any written or oral 16 representations made by the lessor to tenants about how long they could 17 18 remain in occupancy; any alternative housing being offered by the lessor, the number of affected tenants; and the length of time the 19 20 affected tenants have lived in their apartments. At the time of filing 21 any action affecting more than one lease and seeking such prior approval from a court of competent jurisdiction, the lessor shall notify all the 22 23 lessees and tenants occupying units in the rental building that are over 24 sixty-five years of age and/or are persons with disabilities of the 25 filing of such action. The lessor shall also notify at such time any 26 village, town, city and county, except counties inside the city of New York, in which such rental building is located of the filing of such 27 action. While such action is pending, the lessor shall notify any 1 prospective lessee or tenant prior to the signing of a lease for prem-2 ises in such rental building of the pendency of such action. 3 4 2. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, a lessor of a rental 5 building where substantially all of the lessees or tenants occupying б units in the rental building are over sixty-five years of age and/or are persons with disabilities may not increase the rent in such rental 7 8 building by more than one percent above the percentage change in the 9 consumer price index since the start of the tenancy or most recent renewal, whichever is more recent at the time of renewal of a lease and 10 11 may not increase the rent more than one time annually. 3. Every lessor of rental buildings where substantially all of the 12 13 lessees or tenants occupying units are over sixty-five years of age 14 and/or are persons with disabilities, shall notify prospective tenants of the provision of this section. Such notice shall be in writing, upon 15 16 the rental application, and shall include, in plain and simple English, 17 in conspicuous print of at least eighteen point type, an explanation of a tenant's rights under this section and all other applicable require-18 19 ments and duties relating thereto. 20 Such notice shall read as follows: 21 NOTICE TO SENIOR CITIZENS AND/OR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES: 22 BUILDING TENANCY SECTION 228-A OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK 23 24 PROHIBITS A LESSOR FROM TERMINATING OR FAILING TO RENEW A LEASE OR 25 TENANCY FOR PREMISES IN CERTAIN HOUSING FOR SENIOR CITIZENS AND/OR 26 PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES, EXCEPT FOR CAUSE. 27 (CONSULT SECTION 228-A OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW FOR SPECIFIC 28 INFORMATION AND CRITERIA.) 4. Any lessor who violates the provisions of this section shall be 29 30 liable to the lessee or tenant affected thereby for reasonable costs, 31 including reasonable attorney's fees, which fees shall be taxed and 32 collected as a part of the costs in the action, and for the reasonable 33 expenses incurred by the affected lessee or tenant in relocating to a new residence. Additionally, lessors shall return initiation fees and 34 35 security deposits to lessees or tenants, where appropriate. An action 36 to recover for such loss, damage or injury may be brought in any court 37 of competent jurisdiction by the affected tenant or lessee. 38 5. As used in this section: (a) "lessor" means the owner or landlord of a rental building, or his 39 40 or her agent; (b) "person with a disability" means an individual who is currently 41 42 receiving social security disability insurance (SSDI) or supplemental 43 security income (SSI) benefits under the federal social security act or 44 disability pension or disability compensation benefits provided by the 45 United States department of veterans affairs or those previously eligi-46 ble by virtue of receiving disability benefits under the supplemental 47 security income program or the social security disability program and currently receiving medical assistance benefits based on determination 48 49 of disability as provided in section three hundred sixty-six of the 50 social services law; 51 (c) "rental building" means twenty or more residential units; and 52 (d) "substantially all" means approximately eighty percent or more of 53 the lessees or tenants occupying units in a rental building, provided 54 that the court need not rely on a strict percentage when, in its deter-55 mination, the interests of justice warrant it.

56 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
