AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the offenses of reckless endangerment of an emergency service person in the first degree and reckless endangerment of an emergency service person in the second degree

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding three new sections 120.26, 120.27 and 120.28 to read as follows:

§ 120.26 Definitions.

For the purposes of sections 120.27 and 120.28 of this article, "emergency service person" shall mean any of the following persons:

1. a firefighter;
2. a police officer;
3. a peace officer;
4. an emergency services professional;
5. a code enforcement officer;
6. a fire inspection personnel; or
7. a building inspector.

§ 120.27 Reckless endangerment of an emergency service person in the second degree.

A person is guilty of reckless endangerment of an emergency service person in the second degree when, knowing that a building permit is required and without obtaining such permit, he or she alters, converts, encloses, subdivides or partitions any building or structure in violation of the New York state uniform fire prevention and building code or any other provision of general, special or local law, ordinance, administrative code, rule or regulation addressing standards for build-
