IN ASSEMBLY

March 10, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. L. ROSENTHAL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to prohibiting employers from certain monitoring activities of employees working at home

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 202-n to
2 read as follows:

3 § 202-n. Protection of employees from certain electronic monitoring.

4 1. No employer shall download, install, or require or request an employ-
5 ee to download or install, any program which monitors the activities of 6 such employee while such employee is working on a personal electronic
7 device. As used in this section "monitor" includes, but is not limited
8 to, tracking of mouse movements, keyboard strokes, website browsing
9 history, location data, video recording of screens or access to cameras
10 for the purpose of tracking productivity and/or monitoring employees
11 remotely.

12 2. No employer shall utilize any program which monitors the activities
13 of an employee while such employee is working from home on an employer
14 provided electronic device, provided however, that an employer may moni-
15 tor the website browsing history of such employee on such employer
16 provided electronic device.

17 3. No employer shall require an employee to leave a camera connected
18 to or part of, an electronic device on while such employee is working 19 from home.

20 4. The commissioner may promulgate regulations as he or she deems
21 necessary for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this 22 section.

23 5. Nothing in this section shall preclude an employer from requiring 24 an employee to utilize a video communication program for work-related 25 activities.

26 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
