AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to a tax credit for employment of an individual who has successfully completed a judicial diversion program or graduated from drug court

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new
2 subdivision 55 to read as follows:

3 55. Credit for employment of individuals who have graduated from drug
4 court or have successfully completed a judicial diversion program. (a)
5 Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be 6 computed as provided in this subdivision, against the tax imposed by
7 this article, if it employs an individual who has graduated from drug
8 court or has successfully completed a judicial diversion program pursu-
9 ant to article two hundred sixteen of the criminal procedure law,
10 provided that such individual is employed for thirty-five hours or more
11 per week and remains in the employ of such taxpayer for a minimum of 12 twelve months.

13 (b) Amount of credit. A credit authorized by this section shall equal 14 three thousand dollars per hired individual for the first year of 15 employment and an additional one thousand dollars if the individual
16 remains in employ for an additional twelve months.

17 (c) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision
18 for any taxable year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less
19 than the amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of this
20 section. If, however, the amount of credits allowed under this subdivi-
21 sion for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount, any amount of 22 credit thus not deductible in such taxable year shall be treated as an 23 overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon.

§ 2. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xlvi) to read as follows:

(xlvi) Employment of individuals	Amount of credit
who have graduated from	under subdivision
drug court or have	fifty-five of section
successfully completed	two hundred ten-B
a judicial diversion program
tax credit under
subsection (kkk)

§ 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (kkk) to read as follows:

(kkk) Tax credit for employment of individuals who have graduated from drug court or have successfully completed a judicial diversion program. (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this subsection, against the tax imposed by this article, if it employs an individual who has graduated from drug court or who has successfully completed a judicial diversion program pursuant to article two hundred sixteen of the criminal procedure law, provided that such individual is employed for thirty-five hours or more per week and remains in the employ of such taxpayer for twelve months.

(2) Amount of credit. A credit authorized by this section shall equal three thousand dollars per hired individual for the first year of employment and an additional one thousand dollars if the individual remains in employ for an additional twelve months.

(3) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the higher of the amount prescribed in paragraphs (c) and (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten-B of this chapter. If, however, the amount of credits allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible in such taxable year shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on the same date as part A of chapter 59 of the laws of 2014 took effect and shall apply to taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2023 and shall apply to those employees hired after this act shall take effect.
