AN ACT to amend the public service law and the general business law, in relation to requiring the release of individuals from utility, phone and television contracts in instances of domestic violence

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The public service law is amended by adding a new section 48-a to read as follows:

§ 48-a. Utility services; domestic violence victims. 1. Every utility corporation shall allow a person who is under a shared contract with such utility corporation to opt-out of such contract without fee, penalty or charge when such person is a victim of domestic violence and provides an attestation in writing of their eligibility as a victim of domestic violence. Such utility corporation may not require such person to disclose confidential information or details relating to such person's status as a victim of domestic violence, as a condition of permitting such person to opt-out of such contract. Further, such utility corporation may not make release from such contract contingent on: (a) maintaining contractual or billing responsibility of a separated account with the provider; (b) approval of separation by the primary account holder, if the primary account holder is not the person making such request; or (c) a prohibition or limitation on the separation as a result of arrears accrued by the account. Such utility corporation shall release such person from such contract no later than seven days after receiving such opt-out request. Such utility corporation shall dispose of information submitted by such person no later than thirty days after

1 receiving such information in a manner as to maintain confidentiality of 2 such information.

3 2. Every utility corporation shall make information about the options
4 and process described in subdivision one of this section readily avail-5 able to customers on the website and any mobile application of such 6 utility corporation, and in other forms of public-facing customer commu-
7 nication.

8 3. A covered provider and any officer, director, employee, vendor or 9 agent thereof shall not be subject to liability for any claims arising 10 from an action taken or omission made with respect to compliance with 11 this section.

12 § 2. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 399-
13 cccc to read as follows:

14 § 399-cccc. Wireless telephone services; domestic violence victims.
15 1. Every provider of wireless telephone service, as defined in paragraph 16 (b) of subdivision one of section twelve hundred twenty-five-c of the 17 vehicle and traffic law, shall allow a person who is under a shared 18 phone plan contract with such provider to opt-out of such contract with-19 out fee, penalty or charge when such person is a victim of domestic 20 violence and provides an attestation in writing of their eligibility as 21 a victim of domestic violence. Such provider of wireless telephone 22 service may not require such person to disclose confidential information 23 or details relating to such person's status as a victim of domestic 24 violence, as a condition of permitting such person to opt-out of such 25 contract. Further, such provider of wireless telephone service may not 26 make release from such contract contingent on: (a) maintaining contrac-27 tual or billing responsibility of a separated account with the provider; 28 (b) approval of separation by the primary account holder, if the 29 primary account holder is not the person making such request; (c) a 30 prohibition or limitation on number portability or a request to change
31 phone numbers; or (d) a prohibition or limitation on the separation
32 as a result of arrears accrued by the account. Such provider of wireless 33 telephone service shall release such person from such contract no later 34 than seven days after receiving such opt-out request. Such provider of 35 wireless telephone service shall dispose of information submitted by 36 such person no later than thirty days after receiving such information 37 in a manner as to maintain confidentiality of such information.

38 2. Every provider of wireless telephone service shall make information 39 about the options and process described in subdivision one of this 40 section readily available to consumers on the website and any mobile 41 application of the provider, in physical stores, and in other forms of 42 public-facing consumer communication.

43 3. A covered provider and any officer, director, employee, vendor or 44 agent thereof shall not be subject to liability for any claims arising 45 from an action taken or omission made with respect to compliance with 46 this section.

47 § 3. Subdivisions 7 and 8 of section 91 of the public service law, 48 subdivision 7 as amended by chapter 202 of the laws of 2013 and subdivi-49 sion 8 as added by chapter 186 of the laws of 2019, are amended and two 50 new subdivisions 13 and 14 are added to read as follows:

51 7. Every telephone corporation, as defined in this chapter shall, at 52 its option: (a) allow a customer to use a modified or alternative name 53 for a directory listing or (b) waive the otherwise applicable charges
54 for a non-published telephone listing, where the customer requests 55 protection of its identity in connection with the customer's purchase of 56 telephone service and the customer is a victim of domestic violence, as

1 defined in section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law, 2 and for whose benefit any order of protection, other than a temporary 3 order of protection, has been issued by a court of competent jurisdic-
4 tion. This waiver of charges shall be for the duration of the applica-
5 ble, non-temporary, order. Any non-published listings provided in this 6 subdivision shall conform to all the same requirements of other non-7 published listings. A customer requesting such an accommodation shall 8 provide [~~a copy of the order of protection to the applicable telephone~~ 9 ~~corporation~~] an attestation in writing of their eligibility as a victim 10 of domestic violence. Such telephone corporation may not require such 11 customer to disclose confidential information or details relating to 12 such customer's status as a victim of domestic violence, as a condition
13 of implementing such accommodation. Any customer requesting an accommo-14 dation pursuant to this subdivision may also request and shall be 15 provided, at no cost to the customer, a new telephone number within 16 fifteen days from the request for such accommodation. Such telephone 17 corporation shall dispose of information submitted by such customer no 18 later than thirty days after receiving such information in a manner as 19 to maintain confidentiality of such information.

20 8. Every telephone corporation, as defined in this chapter, shall 21 allow a person who is under contract including, but not limited to, a 22 multi-year contract or bundle contract with such telephone corporation, 23 to opt-out of such contract without fee, penalty or charge when such 24 person is a victim of domestic violence and [~~requests to opt-out in~~ 25 ~~writing. Such victim of domestic violence shall provide to such tele-~~ 26 ~~phone corporation any of the following documents, which shall relate to~~ 27 ~~such domestic violence, within six months of the document's issuance:~~ 28 ~~(a) a valid domestic violence incident report form, as such term is~~ 29 ~~defined in subdivision fifteen of section eight hundred thirty-seven of~~ 30 ~~the executive law; (b) a valid police report; (c) a valid order of~~ 31 ~~protection; (d) a signed affidavit from a licensed medical or mental~~ 32 ~~health care provider, employee of a court acting within the scope of his~~ 33 ~~or her employment, social worker, a rape crisis counselor, as defined in~~ 34 ~~section forty-five hundred ten of the civil practice law and rules, or~~ 35 ~~advocate acting on behalf of an agency that assists domestic violence~~ 36 ~~victims~~] provides an attestation in writing of their eligibility as a 37 victim of domestic violence. Such telephone corporation may not require 38 such person to disclose confidential information or details relating to 39 such person's status as a victim of domestic violence, as a condition of 40 permitting such person to opt-out of such contract. Further, such tele-41 phone corporation may not make release from such contract contingent on:
42 (a) maintaining contractual or billing responsibility of a separated 43 line with the provider; (b) approval of separation by the primary 44 account holder, if the primary account holder is not the person making 45 such request; (c) a prohibition or limitation on number portability or a 46 request to change phone numbers; or (d) a prohibition or limitation on 47 the separation of lines as a result of arrears accrued by the account.
48 Such telephone corporation shall release such person from such contract 49 no later than seven days after receiving such opt-out request. Such 50 telephone corporation shall dispose of information submitted by such 51 person no later than thirty days after receiving such information in a 52 manner as to maintain confidentiality of such information. A claim for 53 opting-out of such contract without charge shall be made in good faith.
54 Such telephone corporation shall waive the otherwise applicable [~~charg-~~ 55 ~~es~~] fee, penalty or charge for such person requesting to opt-out of such 56 contract.

13. Every telephone corporation, as defined in this chapter, shall make information about the options and process described in subdivision eight of this section readily available to consumers on the website and any mobile application of the provider, in physical stores, and in other forms of public-facing consumer communication.

14. A covered provider and any officer, director, employee, vendor or agent thereof shall not be subject to liability for any claims arising from an action taken or omission made with respect to compliance with subdivisions seven, eight or thirteen of this section.

§ 4. Section 399-yy of the general business law, as amended by chapter 186 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 399-yy. Cable television company providing telephone services. 1. Every cable television company, as defined in section two hundred twelve of the public service law, that provides telephone service to customers in New York shall, at its option: a. allow a customer without fee, penalty or charge to use a modified or alternative name for a directory listing or b. waive the otherwise applicable charges for a non-published telephone listing, where the customer requests protection of its identity in connection with the customer's purchase of telephone service and the customer is a victim of domestic violence, as defined in section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law~~[, and for whose benefit any order of protection, other than a temporary order of protection, has been issued by a court of competent jurisdiction.
