AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to broadband service for low-income consumers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new 2 section 399-zzzzzz to read as follows:

3 § 399-zzzzzz. Broadband service for low-income consumers. 1. For the 4 purposes of this section, the term "broadband service" shall mean a
5 mass-market retail service that provides the capability to transmit data 6 to and receive data from all or substantially all internet endpoints,
7 including any capabilities that are incidental to and enable the opera-
8 tion of the communications service provided by a wireline, fixed wire-
9 less or satellite service provider, but shall not include dial-up
10 service.

11 2. Every person, business, corporation, or their agents providing or 12 seeking to provide wireline, fixed wireless or satellite broadband 13 service in New York state shall, no later than sixty days after the 14 effective date of this section, offer high speed broadband service to 15 low-income consumers whose household: (a) is eligible for free or 16 reduced-priced lunch through the National School Lunch Program; or (b) 17 whose annual gross household income is not in excess of one hundred 18 eighty-five percent of the federal poverty guidelines as updated period-
19 ically in the Federal Register by the United States Department of Health 20 and Human Services under the authority of 42 U.S.C. § 9902(2). Such 21 low-income broadband service shall provide a minimum download speed
22 equal to the greater of twenty-five megabits per second download speed 23 or the download speed of the provider's existing low-income broadband

1 service sold to customers in the state subject to exceptions adopted by
2 the Public Service Commission where such download speed is not reason-3 ably practicable.

4 3. Broadband service for low-income consumers, as set forth in this 5 section, shall be provided at a cost of no more than fifteen dollars per 6 month, inclusive of any recurring taxes and fees such as recurring
7 rental fees for service provider equipment required to obtain broadband 8 service and usage fees. Broadband service providers shall allow low-in-9 come broadband service subscribers to purchase standalone or bundled
10 cable and/or phone services separately. Broadband service providers may, 11 once every five years, and after thirty days' notice to its customers
12 and the department of public service, increase the price of this service
13 by the lesser of the most recent change in the consumer price index or a 14 maximum of two percent per year of the price for such service.

15 4. A broadband service provider who offers a high speed broadband 16 service to eligible low-income customers, as such term is used in subdi-
17 vision two of this section, at a download speed of two hundred megabits 18 per second or greater at a cost of no more than twenty dollars per 19 month, inclusive of any recurring taxes and fees such as recurring
20 rental fees for service provider equipment required to obtain broadband 21 service and usage fees, shall be considered to be in compliance with the 22 requirements of subdivisions two and three of this section. Such provid-23 ers may, once every two years, and after thirty days' notice to its 24 customers and the department of public service, increase the price of 25 such service by the lesser of the most recent change in the consumer 26 price index or a maximum of two percent per year of the price for such 27 service.

28 5. Every person, business, corporation, or their agents providing or 29 seeking to provide broadband service in New York state shall make all 30 commercially reasonable efforts to promote and advertise the availabili-31 ty of broadband service for low-income consumers including, but not 32 limited to, the prominent display of, and enrollment procedures for,
33 such service on its website and in any written and commercial promo-34 tional materials developed to inform consumers who may be eligible for 35 service pursuant to this section.

36 6. Every person, business, corporation, or their agents providing or 37 seeking to provide broadband service in New York state shall annually
38 submit to the department of public service, no later than November
39 fifteenth after the effective date of this act, and annually thereafter,
40 a compliance report setting forth: (a) a description of the service
41 offered pursuant to this section; (b) the number of consumers enrolled 42 in such service; (c) a description of the procedures being used to veri-
43 fy the eligibility of customers receiving such service; (d) a 44 description and samples of the advertising or marketing efforts under-45 taken to advertise or promote such service; (e) a description of all 46 retail rate products, including pricing, offered by such person, busi-
47 ness, corporation, or their agents; (f) a description, including speed
48 and price, of all broadband products offered in the state of New York;
49 and (g) such other information as the department of public service may 50 require.

51 7. The department of public service shall, within two years of the 52 effective date of this section and at least every five years thereafter,
53 undertake a proceeding to determine if the minimum broadband download
54 speed in this section should be increased to the federal communications
55 commission's benchmark broadband download speed, or to another minimum 56 broadband download speed if the federal communications commission has

1 not increased its benchmark by such date. The department of public 2 service shall also: (a) undertake appropriate measures to inform the 3 public about available broadband products, including retail rate product
4 offerings and low-income offerings; and (b) periodically, but no less 5 than once every five years, review eligibility requirements for the 6 low-income service required pursuant to this section, and update such 7 requirements as may be necessary to meet the needs of consumers.

8 8. Whenever there shall be a violation of this section, an application 9 may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the 10 state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special 11 proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of 12 not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such 13 violation; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or 14 justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an 15 injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and 16 restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any 17 person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such 18 proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as 19 provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three 20 hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitu-
21 tion. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of this 22 section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more 23 than one thousand dollars per violation. In connection with any such 24 proposed application, the attorney general is authorized to take proof 25 and make a determination of the relevant facts and to issue subpoenas in 26 accordance with the civil practice law and rules.

27 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
