AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to designating a portion of the state highway system in the town of Wales as the "Petty Officer Robert Segool Memorial Highway"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The highway law is amended by adding a new section 344-n to read as follows:

§ 344-n. Portion of the state highway system to be designated as the "Petty Officer Robert Segool Memorial Highway". The portion of State Route 16 between Emery Road and Darling Road, in the town of Wales, county of Erie, shall be designated and known as the "Petty Officer Robert Segool Memorial Highway".

§ 2. The commissioner of transportation shall provide for the installation and maintenance of adequate signing of the state highway system as designated pursuant to section one of this act. However, to avoid confusion and to limit any possible disruption of commerce, the designation called for pursuant to section one of this act shall be one of ceremonial nature and the official name of such highway shall not be changed as a result of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
