AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to providing for a charge-back of refunds of taxes levied by a school district to municipal public libraries and special district public libraries

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 726 of the real property tax law, as amended by chapter 546 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

(c) Any final order in a proceeding under article seven of this chapter, which orders or directs the correction or striking of an assessment appearing on that portion of a city, town or county assessment roll applicable to a school district, shall be binding on such school district. Any amount of taxes of such school district at any time collected upon such assessment in excess of the amount which would have been paid had such assessment been made as determined by such order, shall be refunded by the school authorities of such school district, together with interest thereon computed as provided in subdivision two of this section. A school district which levies taxes on behalf of a school district public library, association library, municipal public library, or special district public library may charge back to such [~~public~~] library the portion of such refund attributable to library purposes. Such refund shall be made in accordance with the procedure set forth in this section, provided, however, that application for such refund shall be made, by the petitioner or other person paying such tax, within three years after the entry of the final order ordering or adjudging or determining such assessment to have been excessive, unequal or unlawful, or that real property was misclassified. The time of the
