IN ASSEMBLY

March 23, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. FRONTUS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to prohibiting employers from asking job applicants about salary expectations and allowing job applicants to request the wage scale and included benefits for the position they are applying for

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding three new sections 2 194-b, 194-c and 194-d to read as follows:
- § 194-b. Salary expectation inquiries prohibited. 1. No employer 4 shall:
- 5 a. rely on the salary expectations of an applicant in determining
 6 whether to offer employment to such individual or in determining the
 7 wages or salary for such individual.
- b. orally or in writing seek, request, or require an applicant or current employee to disclose salary expectations as a condition to be interviewed, or as a condition of continuing to be considered for an offer of employment, or as a condition of employment or promotion.
- 12 c. refuse to interview, hire, promote, otherwise employ, or otherwise 13 retaliate against an applicant or current employee based upon stated 14 salary expectations.
- d. refuse to interview, hire, promote, otherwise employ, or otherwise retaliate against an applicant or current employee because such applicant or current employee did not provide salary expectations in accordance with this section.
- e. refuse to interview, hire, promote, otherwise employ, or otherwise retaliate against an applicant or current or former employee because the applicant or current or former employee filed a complaint with the department alleging a violation of this section.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
