Introduced by M. of A. TANNOUSIS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Insurance

AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to unfair claim settlements after a natural disaster

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 2601 of the insurance law, paragraph 4 of 2 subsection (a) as amended by chapter 547 of the laws of 1997, paragraph 3 5 of subsection (a) as amended by section 27 of part H of chapter 60 of 4 the laws of 2014 and paragraphs 6 and 7 as amended and paragraph 8 of 5 subsection (a) as added by chapter 458 of the laws of 2018, is amended 6 to read as follows:

S 2601. Unfair claim settlement practices; penalties. (a) No insurer doing business in this state shall engage in unfair claim settlement practices. Any of the following acts by an insurer, if committed without just cause and performed with such frequency as to indicate a general business practice, shall constitute unfair claim settlement practices, provided, however, that in the event the governor has pursuant to section twenty-nine-a of the executive law suspended any statute in this chapter as a result of a state disaster emergency, such act shall constitute an unfair claim settlement practice without respect to whether such act was indicative of a general business practice:

17 (1) knowingly misrepresenting to claimants pertinent facts or policy 18 provisions relating to coverages at issue;

(2) failing to acknowledge with reasonable promptness pertinent commu-20 nications as to claims arising under its policies;

(3) failing to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation of claims arising under its policies;

(4) not attempting in good faith to effectuate prompt, fair and equitable settlements of claims submitted in which liability has become reasonably clear, except where there is a reasonable basis supported by specific information available for review by the department that the 1 claimant has caused the loss to occur by arson. After receiving a prop-2 erly executed proof of loss, the insurer shall advise the claimant of 3 4 acceptance or denial of the claim within thirty working days; 5 (5) compelling policyholders to institute suits to recover amounts due б under its policies by offering substantially less than the amounts ultimately recovered in suits brought by them; 7 (6) failing to promptly disclose coverage pursuant to subsection (d) 8 9 or subparagraph (A) of paragraph two of subsection (f) of section three 10 thousand four hundred twenty of this chapter; (7) submitting reasonably rendered claims to the independent dispute 11 12 resolution process established under article six of the financial 13 services law; or 14 (8) artificially deflating or otherwise lowering cost data used for 15 adjusted claims, or using cost data that is not appropriate for the 16 region of the state where the loss occurred; this shall include but is 17 not limited to claims adjusted by a person issued a temporary permit pursuant to subsection (n) of section two thousand one hundred eight of 18 this chapter[-]; or 19 20 (9) In addition to the foregoing, when the governor has declared a 21 state disaster emergency, the following practices shall be deemed unfair 22 claim settlement practices: (A) attempting to settle a claim on the basis of a document that was 23 24 altered without notice to the consumer; (B) making a material misrepresentation for the purpose of settling a 25 26 claim on less favorable terms than those provided in the policy; 27 (C) failing to promptly notify the insured of any additional informa-28 tion necessary for the processing of the claim, as well as the reasons why such information is necessary; 29 30 (D) failing to conduct an on-site inspection within seven business 31 days from submission of the claim; 32 (E) failing to provide the claimant with a copy of the adjuster's report within three business days from the inspection; 33 (F) failing to provide a determination on the claim within thirty 34 35 calendar days from furnishing claimant with a copy of the report; and 36 (G) if damages are determined to be covered under the policy, failing 37 to pay at least twenty percent of the total claim upon such determi-38 nation and the claim in full within thirty days of determination. (b) Evidence as to numbers and types of complaints to the department 39 40 against an insurer and as to the department's complaint experience with other insurers writing similar lines of insurance shall be admissible in 41 42 evidence in any administrative or judicial proceeding under this section 43 or article twenty-four or seventy-four of this chapter, but no insurer shall be deemed in violation of this section solely by reason of the 44 45 numbers and types of such complaints. 46 (c) If it is found, after notice and an opportunity to be heard, that 47 an insurer has violated this section, each instance of noncompliance with subsection (a) [hereof] of this section may be treated as a sepa-48 rate violation of this section for purposes of ordering a monetary 49 penalty pursuant to subsection (b) of section one hundred nine of this 50 chapter. A violation of this section shall not be a misdemeanor. 51 52 2. The insurance law is amended by adding a new section 2601-a to S 53 read as follows: 54 § 2601-a. Unfair claim settlement practices during state disaster emergency; civil remedy. (a) In the event the governor has pursuant to 55 56 section twenty-nine-a of the executive law suspended any statute in this chapter as a result of a state disaster emergency an insurer doing busi-1 2 ness in this state shall be liable to the holder of a policy issued or 3 renewed pursuant to article thirty-four of this chapter for damages as 4 provided in this section upon such policy holder proving by a preponder-5 ance of the evidence that such insurer's refusal to pay or unreasonable б delay in payment to the policy holder of amounts claimed to be due a 7 policy was not substantially justified. An insurer is not substantially 8 justified in refusing to pay or in unreasonably delaying payment when 9 the insurer: 10 (1) intentionally, recklessly or by gross negligence failed to provide 11 the policy holder with accurate information concerning policy provisions relating to the coverage at issue; 12 (2) failed to effectuate in good faith a prompt, fair and equitable 13 14 settlement of a claim submitted by such policy holder in which liability of such insurer to such policy holder was reasonably clear; 15 16 (3) failed to provide a written denial of a policy holder's claim with 17 a full and complete explanation of such denial, including references to 18 specific policy provisions wherever possible; (4) failed to make a final determination and notify the policy holder 19 20 in writing of its position on both liability for, and the insurer's valuation of, a claim within ninety days of the date on which it 21 received actual or constructive notice of the loss upon which the claim 22 23 is based; (5) failed to act in good faith by compelling policy holder to insti-24 25 tute suit to recover amounts due under its policy by offering substan-26 tially less than the amounts ultimately recovered in suit brought by 27 such policy holder; or (6) has engaged in any other unfair claim settlement practice 28 29 defined in paragraph nine of subsection (a) of section two thousand six 30 hundred one of this article. 31 (b) Any policy holder who establishes liability pursuant to subsection 32 (a) of this section shall be entitled to recover, in addition to amounts due under the policy, interest, costs, and disbursements, compensatory 33 damages and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the policy holder 34 35 from the date of the loss, in recovering monies due pursuant to the 36 terms of the policy. (c) Any policy holder may recover damages from an insurer doing busi-37 38 ness in this state pursuant to this section either as part of an action to recover under the terms of an insurance policy or in a separate 39 40 action. 41 (d) In any trial of a cause of action asserted against an insurer 42 pursuant to this section, evidence of settlement discussions written and 43 verbal offers to compromise and other evidence relating to the claims 44 process shall be admissible. If causes of action relating to liability 45 of the insurer under the policy and under this section are alleged in 46 the same action, the court may bifurcate the trial of issues so as to 47 avoid prejudice to the insurer on the issue of liability under the policy and facilitate admissibility of evidence on the causes of action 48 49 asserted pursuant to this section. (e) All amounts recovered from an insurer as actual damages and 50 51 reasonable attorneys' fees in any action authorized in this section shall be excluded by the insurer in its determinations of the premiums 52 53 it will charge all policy holders on all policies issued by it. 54 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
