AN ACT to amend the public authorities law, in relation to requiring the metropolitan transportation authority to install surveillance cameras at subway platforms

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as "Sedrick's law".

§ 2. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new section 1266-l to read as follows:

§ 1266-l. Surveillance cameras; subway stations. The authority shall install and reasonably maintain proper operation of surveillance cameras at all subway stations operated by the authority. Such surveillance cameras may be placed in all areas, including but not limited to, areas frequented by passengers and all train platforms.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
