The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 7 of section 296 of the executive law, as 2 amended by chapter 166 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 7. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any person 5 engaged in any activity to which this section applies to retaliate or 6 discriminate against any person because he or she has opposed any prac-
7 tices forbidden under this article or because he or she has filed a 8 complaint, testified or assisted in any proceeding under this article.
9 Retaliation may include, but is not limited to, disclosing an employee's 10 personnel files because he or she has opposed any practices forbidden
11 under this article or because he or she has filed a complaint, testified 12 or assisted in any proceeding under this article, except where such 13 disclosure is made in the course of commencing or responding to a 14 complaint in any proceeding under this article or any other civil or 15 criminal action or other judicial or administrative proceeding as 16 permitted by applicable law.

17 § 2. Subdivision 9 of section 297 of the executive law, as separately

1 unless such person had filed a complaint hereunder or with any local 2 commission on human rights, or with the superintendent pursuant to the 3 provisions of section two hundred ninety-six-a of this [~~chapter~~]
4 article, provided that, where the division has dismissed such complaint
5 on the grounds of administrative convenience, on the grounds of untime-6 liness, or on the grounds that the election of remedies is annulled,
7 such person shall maintain all rights to bring suit as if no complaint
8 had been filed with the division. At any time prior to a hearing before 9 a hearing examiner, a person who has a complaint pending at the division 10 may request that the division dismiss the complaint and annul his or her 11 election of remedies so that the human rights law claim may be pursued 12 in court, and the division may, upon such request, dismiss the complaint 13 on the grounds that such person's election of an administrative remedy 14 is annulled. Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of section two hundred four 15 of the civil practice law and rules, if a complaint is so annulled by 16 the division, upon the request of the party bringing such complaint
17 before the division, such party's rights to bring such cause of action 18 before a court of appropriate jurisdiction shall be limited by the stat-19 ute of limitations in effect in such court at the time the complaint was 20 initially filed with the division. Any party to a housing discrimination 21 complaint shall have the right within twenty days following a determi-22 nation of probable cause pursuant to subdivision two of this section to 23 elect to have an action commenced in a civil court, and an attorney 24 representing the division of human rights will be appointed to present 25 the complaint in court, or, with the consent of the division, the case 26 may be presented by complainant's attorney. A complaint filed by the 27 equal employment opportunity commission to comply with the requirements
28 of 42 USC 2000e-5(c) and 42 USC 12117(a) and 29 USC 633(b) shall not 29 constitute the filing of a complaint within the meaning of this subdivi-30 sion. No person who has initiated any action in a court of competent 31 jurisdiction or who has an action pending before any administrative 32 agency under any other law of the state based upon an act which would be 33 an unlawful discriminatory practice under this article, may file a 34 complaint with respect to the same grievance under this section or under 35 section two hundred ninety-six-a of this article. In cases of housing 36 discrimination only, a person whose complaint has been dismissed by the 37 division after investigation for lack of jurisdiction or lack of proba-
38 ble cause may file the same cause of action in a court of appropriate 39 jurisdiction pursuant to this section, unless judicial review of such 40 dismissal has been sought pursuant to section two hundred ninety-eight 41 of this article. The attorney general shall have the power to commence 42 an action or proceeding in the supreme court of the state of New York,
43 if, upon information or belief, the attorney general is of the opinion
44 that an employer has been, is, or is about to violate the provisions 45 regarding unlawful discriminatory retaliation pursuant to subdivision
46 seven of section two hundred ninety-six of this article. Nothing in this 47 section shall in any way limit rights or remedies which are otherwise 48 available under law to the attorney general or any other person author-49 ized to bring an action under this section.

50 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
