7105--A

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

April 22, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. GONZALEZ-ROJAS, FERNANDEZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing -- recommitted to the Committee on Housing in accordance with Assembly Rule 3, sec. 2 -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the requirements for filing a complaint with the Division of Human Rights

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section
2	238-b to read as follows:
3	§ 238-b. Security deposit. 1. A landlord who requires a security
4	deposit to be paid by a tenant which is covered by the provisions of 5	sections 7-107 and 7-108 of the general obligations law shall also be б	required to offer to accept at least one of the following options in 7	lieu of such security deposit:
8	a. Payment of any security deposit over a series of no less than six
9	equal monthly installment payments, which installments shall be due on 10	the same day as the monthly rent payment and which may be paid together
11	with the monthly rent payment in a single transaction, absent a separate 12	agreement between such landlord and tenant;
13	b. Payment of a reduced security deposit which shall be no more than 14	fifty percent of the amount of one month's rent under such contract; or 15	c. If such tenant qualifies, payment of any deposit through the secu-
16	rity deposit guarantee program established by section fourteen-a of the 17	public housing law.
18	2. In addition to the options in subdivision one of this section in 19	lieu of a security deposit, a landlord may accept rental security insur-
20	ance, defined as a surety bond or insurance policy issued by a
21	licensed carrier in the state of New York that guarantees or indemnifies 1100mbou outrioi in one poute of new rorn onde guaranceep er indemitriep
22	a tenant after default of a financial obligation under the rental

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD02329-08-2

A. 7105--A

1	agreement. If the landlord wishes to offer or suggest rental security
2	insurance that is provided by itself or a separate company, the rental
3	security insurance offered must satisfy the following criteria:
4	a. the insurance provider is an approved carrier licensed by the 5	department of financial services pursuant to article eleven of the 6	insurance law;
7	b. the coverage is effective upon the payment of the first premium or
8	fee and remains effective for the entire lease term;
9	c. any dispute under the coverage cannot require arbitration and waive
10	the tenant's right to go to court;
11	d. the amount paid by the tenant cannot exceed the amount of the 12	coverage;
13	e. the tenant cannot be liable to the insurance provider for any 14	claims paid out to the landlord; and 15	f. the coverage provided per claim is no less than the amount such 16	landlord requires for security deposits.
17	3. A tenant who elects to provide rental security insurance, pursuant
18	to paragraph a of subdivision one of this section, in lieu of a required
19	security deposit shall not be required to provide additional security or 20	insurance coverage per claim in an amount greater than the amount
21	required for the security deposit.
22	4. Such landlord shall not impose any additional fees or interest on a
23	tenant that pays their security deposit in an alternate manner pursuant 24	to subdivision one of this section.
25	5. Any agreement to pay a security deposit in installments shall be 26	included within such contract, lease or agreement and shall specify the 27	total deposit amount due and the amount due for each installment.
28	6. Prior to entering into a contract, lease or rental agreement a
29	landlord shall provide the tenant written notice of the available secu-
30	rity deposit alternatives and include the following language: "If a
31	security deposit is required, tenant has the right to request and land-
32	lord is required to accept one of the following three alternatives: a. a
33	deposit paid over no less than six equal monthly installments; b. a
34	one-time reduced security deposit payment of no more than fifty percent
35	of the monthly rental rate charged for the rental unit; or c. if such
36	tenant qualifies, a deposit paid through the security deposit guarantee
37	program. Tenant shall not be required to provide rental security insur-
38	ance coverage per claim in an amount greater than the amount required
39	for the security deposit".
40	7. The requirements of this section shall be considered source of 41	income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred nine-
42	ty-two of the executive law and any violation of this section may be a
43	violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law.
44	§ 2. The public housing law is amended by adding a new section 14-a to
45	read as follows:
46	§ 14-a. The security deposit quarantee program. 1. (a) The commission-
47	er shall establish within available appropriations, and administer a 48	security deposit quarantee program for any person who:
49	(i) (A) is a recipient of: the supplemental nutrition assistance
50	program pursuant to section ninety-five of the social services law,
51 52	safety net assistance pursuant to title three of article five of the 52 52	social services law, or any other qualifying federal or state public
53 E4	assistance program as determined by the commissioner;
54	(B) has a documented showing of financial need; and
55	(ii)(A) is residing in an emergency shelter or homeless housing estab-
56	lished under article two-A of the social services law; or

A. 7105--A

1	(B) have a certification, voucher or allowance from the public assist-
2	ance shelter allowance established by section one hundred thirty-one-a
3	of the social services law, the federal Section 8 housing voucher
4	program or the Section 8 housing certificate program (42 U.S.C. 1437 et 5	seq.).
б	(b) The commissioner shall provide security deposit guarantees for use
7	by such persons in lieu of a security deposit on residential rental
8	property or rental dwelling unit.
9	(c) Eligible persons shall receive a security deposit guarantee in an
10	amount not to exceed the equivalent of one month's rent on such residen-
11	tial rental property or rental dwelling unit.
12	(d) No person shall apply for and receive a security deposit guarantee
13	more than once in any eighteen-month period without the express authori-
14^{13}	zation of the commissioner, except as provided in subdivision two of 15^{14}	this section.
16	2. (a) In the case of a person who qualifies for a guarantee, the 17	commissioner or any local or regional nonprofit corporation or social 18	service organization under contract with the division of housing and 19	community renewal to assist in the administration of the security depos-
20	it program established pursuant to subdivision one of this section,
21	shall execute a written agreement to pay the landlord for any damages
22	suffered by the landlord due to the tenant's failure to comply with such 23	tenant's obligations pursuant to the contract for use or rental of the 24	residential rental property or rental dwelling unit, provided the amount
25	of any such payment shall not exceed the amount of the requested securi-
26	ty deposit and that the landlord complies with sections 7-107 and 7-108
27	of the general obligations law.
28	(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section,
29	if a person who has previously received a grant for a security deposit
30	or a security deposit guarantee becomes eligible for a subsequent secu-
31	rity deposit guarantee within eighteen months after a claim has been 32	paid on a prior security deposit guarantee, such person may receive a
33	security deposit guarantee. The amount of the subsequent security depos-
33 34	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible
33 34 35	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been
33 34	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible
33 34 35	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been
33 34 35 36	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source
33 34 35 36 37	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred
33 34 35 36 37 38	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source
33 34 35 36 37 38 39	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred
33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a
33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two
33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law.
33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43	<pre>it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving</pre>
33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving assistance pursuant to any federal, state or local program shall not be
33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving assistance pursuant to any federal, state or local program shall not be deducted from the amount of assistance to which the recipient would
33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 445 46 47	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving assistance pursuant to any federal, state or local program shall not be deducted from the amount of assistance to which the recipient would otherwise be entitled under such program.
33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46	it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving assistance pursuant to any federal, state or local program shall not be deducted from the amount of assistance to which the recipient would otherwise be entitled under such program. 5. The commissioner may, within available appropriations, on a case-
33 34 35 36 37 38 40 41 42 43 445 445 467 48	<pre>it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving assistance pursuant to any federal, state or local program shall not be deducted from the amount of assistance to which the recipient would otherwise be entitled under such program. 5. The commissioner may, within available appropriations, on a case- by-case basis, provide a security deposit grant to a person eligible for</pre>
33 34 35 36 37 38 40 41 42 43 445 467 48 49	<pre>it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving assistance pursuant to any federal, state or local program shall not be deducted from the amount of assistance to which the recipient would otherwise be entitled under such program. 5. The commissioner may, within available appropriations, on a case- by-case basis, provide a security deposit grant to a person eligible for the security deposit guarantee program established pursuant to subdivi-</pre>
33 34 35 36 37 38 40 412 43 45 46 47 489 51	<pre>it guarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving assistance pursuant to any federal, state or local program shall not be deducted from the amount of assistance to which the recipient would otherwise be entitled under such program. 5. The commissioner may, within available appropriations, on a case- by-case basis, provide a security deposit grant to a person eligible for the security deposit guarantee program established pursuant to subdivi- sion one of this section, in an amount not to exceed the equivalent of one month's rent on such residential rental property or rental dwelling</pre>
33 34 35 36 37 38 40 412 43 45 46 490 51 52	<pre>it quarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving assistance pursuant to any federal, state or local program shall not be deducted from the amount of assistance to which the recipient would otherwise be entitled under such program. 5. The commissioner may, within available appropriations, on a case- by-case basis, provide a security deposit grant to a person eligible for the security deposit guarantee program established pursuant to subdivi- sion one of this section, in an amount not to exceed the equivalent of one month's rent on such residential rental property or rental dwelling unit, provided the commissioner determines that emergency circumstances</pre>
33 34 35 36 37 38 40 412 434 45 47 490 512 53	<pre>it quarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving assistance pursuant to any federal, state or local program shall not be deducted from the amount of assistance to which the recipient would otherwise be entitled under such program. 5. The commissioner may, within available appropriations, on a case- by-case basis, provide a security deposit grant to a person eligible for the security deposit guarantee program established pursuant to subdivi- sion one of this section, in an amount not to exceed the equivalent of one month's rent on such residential rental property or rental dwelling unit, provided the commissioner determines that emergency circumstances exist which threaten the health, safety or welfare of a child who</pre>
33 34 35 36 37 38 40 412 43 45 46 490 51 52	<pre>it quarantee for which such person would otherwise have been eligible shall be reduced by any amount of a previous grant which has not been returned to the department pursuant to this section, or the amount of any payment made to the landlord for damages pursuant to this section. 3. A security deposit guarantee or grant shall be considered a source of income as defined by subdivision thirty-six of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law and refusal by a landlord to accept a security deposit guarantee or grant shall be a violation of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. 4. Any payment made pursuant to this section to a person receiving assistance pursuant to any federal, state or local program shall not be deducted from the amount of assistance to which the recipient would otherwise be entitled under such program. 5. The commissioner may, within available appropriations, on a case- by-case basis, provide a security deposit grant to a person eligible for the security deposit guarantee program established pursuant to subdivi- sion one of this section, in an amount not to exceed the equivalent of one month's rent on such residential rental property or rental dwelling unit, provided the commissioner determines that emergency circumstances</pre>

1	security deposit grant in conjunction with a one-month security deposit
2	quarantee.
3	6. Nothing in this section shall preclude the commissioner from enter-
4	ing into a contract with one or more local or regional not-for-profit
5	corporations or social service organizations for the purpose of issuing
6	security deposit guarantees pursuant to this section.
7	7. A landlord shall submit a claim for damages not later than forty-
8	five days after the date of termination of the tenancy. Payment shall be
9	made only for a claim that includes receipts for repairs made and proof
10	that the landlord complied with sections 7-107 and 7-108 of the general
11	obligations law. No claim shall be paid for a dwelling unit from which a
12	tenant vacated because substandard conditions made such dwelling unit
13^{12}	uninhabitable, as determined by a local, state or federal regulatory 14^{13}	agency.
15	8. Any person who is found eligible to receive a security deposit
16	quarantee under this section and for whom the commissioner has paid a
17	claim by a landlord, shall contribute five percent of one month's rent
18	under such contract to the payment of the security deposit. The commis-
$10 \\ 19$	sioner may waive such payment for good cause.
20	9. The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations, to admin-
20	ister the program established pursuant to this section and to set eligibility criteria for such program.
21 22
23	§ 3. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 24	have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or 25	repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 26	this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed
27	on or before such effective date.