AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to requiring senior high schools to provide a course in financial literacy and requiring students to complete such course as a condition of graduation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 802-b 2 to read as follows:

3 § 802-b. Instruction relating to financial literacy. 1. The commis-
4 sioner is hereby directed to provide and prescribe a course of instruc-5 tion on financial literacy for senior high school students which shall 6 include, but not be limited to the teaching of personal budgeting, wages 7 and taxes, self-employment, savings and investments (stocks, bonds and 8 mutual funds), debt management, checking accounts, credit cards, credit 9 scores, saving for education and retirement, insurance, rights and obli-
10 gations as a tenant, basic concepts on borrowing including the purchas-11 ing of automobiles and homes, benefits and drawbacks of leasing and/or 12 purchasing of automobiles, and the benefits and drawbacks of renting
13 and/or purchasing a home. The course shall be taught on a pass/fail 14 basis and shall not affect the student's grade point average.

15 2. School authorities shall provide the needed facilities, time and 16 place for the instruction set forth in this section and shall provide 17 learning aids and curriculum resource materials which contribute to 18 effective teaching methods and learning.

19 3. As a condition of graduation from senior high school, a student 20 shall attend and pass the course on financial literacy; provided, howev-
21 er, that with respect to students who have individual education plans,
