Introduced by M. of A. RICHARDSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring the division of criminal justice services and the division of state police to publish quarterly reports providing information related to firearms, rifles and shotguns used in the commission of crimes in the state of New York

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 837-w to read as follows:

§ 837-w. Reporting on firearms, rifles and shotguns used in the commission of a crime. 1. The division, in conjunction with the division of state police, shall publish quarterly reports on their respective websites beginning October first, two thousand twenty-one, with information related to firearms, rifles and shotguns used in the commission of crimes in the state of New York, including but not limited to, the county and state of origin of the firearm, rifle or shotgun, the county and state where the firearm, rifle or shotgun was purchased, whether the firearm, rifle or shotgun was purchased by the perpetrator of the crime or by another individual, and whether the perpetrator had a license or permit to possess such firearm, rifle or shotgun.

2. Each political subdivision, municipality, commission, agency, office, department, board and division in the state, to the extent not inconsistent with other provisions of law, shall cooperate fully with the division and shall furnish the division with information and assistance as may be required in the performance of its function under this section.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
