Introduced by M. of A. ABBATE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to defining the term "first responder in communications"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The civil service law is amended by adding a new section 159-d to read as follows:

§ 159-d. First responder in communications. 1. "First responder in communications" means any individual who is a public safety dispatcher, emergency responder, emergency operator, emergency complaint operator and emergency services dispatcher who meets the minimum requirements established by a local government, department or agency including, but not limited to, police and sheriff's departments as well as fire, rescue and emergency services departments. Such individual is responsible for the administration or supervision of life saving communication services for emergency situations.

2. To the extent practicable, employers of a first responder in communications shall provide training to maintain and enhance the knowledge, skills and proficiency of such first responder in communications.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
