- 3. While the action is pending or after final judgment for the plaintiff therein, no other action shall be commenced or maintained to recover any part of the mortgage debt, without leave of the court in which the former action was brought. This subdivision shall not be 8 treated as a stay or statutory prohibition for purposes of calculating 9 the time within which an action shall be commenced pursuant to sections 10 two hundred four and two hundred thirteen of the civil practice law and rules.
- 4. If an action to collect any part of the mortgage debt is adjudi-13 cated to be barred by the applicable statute of limitations, any other action seeking to recover any part of the same mortgage debt shall also be barred by the statute of limitations.
- 15 16 § 2. Rule 3217 of the civil practice law and rules is amended by 17 adding a new subdivision (e) to read as follows:
- 18 (e) Effect of discontinuance upon certain instruments. In any action 19 on an instrument described under subdivision four of section two hundred 20 thirteen of this chapter in which the underlying indebtedness was accelerated by the commencement of such action, the voluntary discontinuance 22 of such action, whether on motion or by stipulation, shall not have the

- § 3. Subdivision (c) of section 205 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 216 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:
- (c) Application. This section also applies to a proceeding brought under the workers' compensation law but shall not apply to any proceeding governed by section two hundred five-a of this article.
- § 4. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new section 205-a to read as follows:
- 13 14 § 205-a. Termination of certain actions related to real property. (a) If an action upon an instrument described under subdivision four of 15 16 section two hundred thirteen of this article is timely commenced and is 17 terminated in any manner other than a voluntary discontinuance, a failure to obtain personal jurisdiction over the defendant, a dismissal of 18 19 the complaint for any form of neglect, including, but not limited to 20 those specified in subdivision three of section thirty-one hundred twen-21 ty-six, section thirty-two hundred fifteen, rule thirty-two hundred sixteen and rule thirty-four hundred four of this chapter, for violation 22 of any uniform court rules or individual part rules, for failure to 23 comply with any court scheduling orders, or by default due to nonappear-24 25 ance for conference or at a calendar call, or by failure to timely 26 submit any order or judgment, or upon a final judgment upon the merits, 27 the plaintiff, or, if the plaintiff dies and the cause of action survives, his or her executor or administrator, may commence a new 28 29 action upon the same transaction or occurrence or series of transactions 30 or occurrences within six months following the termination, provided 31 that the new action would have been timely commenced within the applica-32 ble limitations period prescribed by law at the time of the commencement 33 of the prior action and that service upon the original defendant is effected within such six-month period. For purposes of this subdivision: 34 35 1. an assignee of the plaintiff shall not be deemed to have capacity 36 to maintain the action as a successor plaintiff, unless pleading and proving that such assignee is acting on behalf of or asserting the 37 38 rights of the original plaintiff; and
- 39 2. in no event shall the plaintiff receive more than one six-month 40 extension.
 - (b) Where the defendant has served an answer and the action upon an instrument described under subdivision four of section two hundred thirteen of this article is terminated in any manner, and a new action upon the same transaction or occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences is commenced by the original plaintiff, or a successor in interest or assignee of the original plaintiff, the assertion of any cause of action or defense by the defendant in the new action shall be timely if such cause of action or defense was timely asserted in the prior action.
 - § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
