- 7 1. Prior to the purchase of any rifle or shotgun, a person shall apply
 8 for a hunting license pursuant to article eleven of the environmental 9 conservation law.
- 10 2. In addition to the requirements required by article eleven of the 11 environmental conservation law, no hunting license for the purchase of a rifle or shotqun shall be issued except for an applicant: (a) who is not 12 an unlawful user of or addicted to any controlled substance as defined 13 14 in section 21 U.S.C. 802 and has provided notarized proof of a passed drug test by a licensed physician; (b) who has stated whether he or she 15 16 has ever suffered any mental illness and has provided notarized proof of 17 a passed mental health evaluation by a licensed physician; (c) who has successfully completed a five hour firearms safety course and test as 18 19 evidenced by a certificate of completion issued in his or her name and 20 endorsed and affirmed under the penalties of perjury by a duly author-21 ized instructor, except that persons who are honorably discharged from the United States army, navy, marine corps or coast quard, or of the 22 national guard of the state of New York, and produce evidence of offi-23 24 cial qualification in firearms during the term of service are not required to have completed those hours of a firearms safety course 25 26 pertaining to the safe use, carrying, possession, maintenance and stor-27 age of firearms, shotguns and rifles; (d) who has successfully completed live firing instruction and a test with at least ninety percent accuracy 28 29 at a shooting range using the type of rifle or shotgun he or she antic-30 ipates purchasing, possessing or acquiring; (e) who does not have a 31 criminal record which would otherwise disqualify him or her from 32 purchasing a shotgun or rifle; and (f) has purchased a safe storage 33 depository for his or her rifle or shotgun and ammunition as evidenced 34 by a receipt of such purchase. For the purposes of this section, "safe 35 storage depository" shall mean a safe or other secure container which, 36 when locked, is incapable of being opened without the key, combination 37 or other unlocking mechanism and is capable of preventing an unauthor-38 ized person from obtaining access to and possession of the weapon or 39 ammunition contained therein.
 - 3. Before a license is issued, there shall be an investigation of all statements related to the requirements of this section by the duly constituted police authorities of the locality where such application is made. For that purpose, the records of the appropriate office of the department of mental hygiene concerning previous or present mental illness of the applicant shall be available for inspection by the investigating officer of the police authority. In order to ascertain any previous criminal record, the investigating officer shall take the fingerprints and physical descriptive data in quadruplicate of each individual by whom the application is made. Two copies of such fingerprints shall be taken on standard fingerprint cards eight inches square, and one copy may be taken on a card supplied for that purpose by the federal bureau of investigation. When completed, one standard card shall be forwarded to and retained by the division of criminal justice services in the executive department, at Albany. A search of the files of such division and written notification of the results of the search to the investigating officer shall be made without unnecessary delay. Thereafter, such division shall notify the issuing officer and the executive department, division of state police, Albany, of any criminal record of the applicant filed therein subsequent to the search of its files. A 3 second standard card, or the one supplied by the federal bureau of investigation, as the case may be, shall be forwarded to that bureau at Washington with a request that the files of the bureau be searched and 7 notification of the results of the search be made to the investigating 8 police authority. Of the remaining two fingerprint cards, one shall be filed with the executive department, division of state police, Albany, 9 within ten days after issuance of the license, and the other remain on 10 file with the investigating police authority. No such fingerprints may 11 be inspected by any person other than a peace officer, who is acting 12 pursuant to his special duties, or a police officer, except on order of 13 14 a judge or justice of a court of record either upon notice to the licen-15 see or without notice, as the judge or justice may deem appropriate. 16 Upon completion of the investigation, the police authority shall report 17 the results to the issuing officer without unnecessary delay. 18

- 4. In acting upon an application, the issuing officer shall either deny the application for reasons specifically and concisely stated in writing or grant the application and issue the license applied for.
- § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 11-0701 of the environmental conservation law is amended by adding a new paragraph c to read as follows:
- c. entitles the holder to purchase a rifle or shotgun provided such holder meets the requirements of section 400.25 of the penal law or any other related provision of law.
- § 4. Subdivision 3 of section 11-0713 of the environmental conservation law is amended by adding a new paragraph a-1 to read as follows:
 - a-1. The issuing officer shall not issue a hunting license for the purchase of a rifle or shotgun to any person unless the applicant presents proof that he or she meets the requirements of section 400.25 of the penal law.
- § 5. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date is authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
