AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to including individuals who do not identify exclusively as a binary gender in eligibility for party positions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 4 of section 2-102 of the election law, as 2 amended by chapter 373 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 4. [~~The state committee may provide by rule for equal representation~~
5 ~~of the sexes on said committee.~~] When any [~~such~~] rule of the state 6 committee provides for [~~equal~~] representation [~~of the sexes~~] by gender, 7 the designating petitions and primary ballots shall list candidates for 8 such party positions separately by [~~sexes~~] gender marker. In providing 9 for such representation, the state committee shall establish rules that 10 provide for the ability of individuals who do not exclusively identify 11 as a binary gender to run for those positions and which respect individ-12 uals' gender identity.

13 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 2-104 of the election law, as amended by 14 chapter 234 of the laws of 1976, is amended to read as follows:

15 2. If [~~, pursuant to section one of article thirteen of the constitu-~~ 16 ~~tion,~~] such committee or a state convention of the party shall provide 17 by rule for [~~equal~~] representation [~~of the sexes~~] by gender on such

1 committee, the rules of such committee relative to additional members, 2 either from election districts or at large, shall be formulated and 3 applied in such manner that the whole membership shall ~~[consist of an~~ 4 ~~even number, equally]~~ be divided [between the sexes] among genders as 5 provided by the rules of such committee. When any such rule provides for 6 ~~[equal]~~ such representation ~~[of the sexes]~~, the designating petitions 7 and primary ballots shall list candidates for such party positions sepa-
8 rately by ~~[sexes]~~ gender marker. In providing for such representation, 9 such committee shall establish rules that provide for the ability of 10 individuals who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to serve 11 as members and which respect individuals' gender identity.

12 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 2-110 of the election law, as amended by 13 chapter 373 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:

14 2. In the city of New York there shall be the party positions of 15 assembly district leaders or, if the rules of the county committee shall 16 so provide, one assembly district leader and one associate assembly
17 district leader. Outside the city of New York there shall be such posi-18 tions when the rules of the county committee shall so provide. Such 19 leaders shall be elected at primary elections as herein provided, within 20 every county in such city for each assembly district, or for each part 21 of an assembly district within such county as may be designated for the 22 purpose in the rules of the county committee, and in every county of the 23 state outside of such city where the rules so provide, for such assembly 24 district or part thereof within such county as may be designated in such 25 rules for the purpose. Such assembly district leaders or such assembly 26 district leader and associate assembly district leader shall be of 27 ~~[opposite sexes]~~ different genders, if the rules of the county committee 28 shall so provide, and shall be enrolled voters of the party residing 29 within the assembly district and, if the rules of the county committee 30 shall so provide, within the part of the assembly district for which 31 they are to be elected, and shall be elected at the same primary 32 election and for the same term as members of the county committee. When 33 any such rule provides for ~~[equal]~~ representation ~~[of sexes]~~ by gender, 34 the designating petitions and primary ballots shall list candidates for 35 such party positions separately by ~~[sexes]~~ gender marker. In providing 36 for such representation, the county committee shall establish rules that 37 provide for the ability of individuals who do not exclusively identify 38 as a binary gender to serve as district leader and which respect indi-39 viduals' gender identity. Each shall perform such duties, powers and 40 functions as the rules of the county committee may prescribe. Vacancies 41 in such positions shall be filled by the members of the county committee 42 within the assembly district or part thereof, as the case may be, until 43 the first primary election following the creation of such vacancy or 44 vacancies for which the period for circulating designating petitions 45 ends at least seven days after the creation of such vacancy or vacan-46 cies, at which time the successor or successors shall be directly 47 elected as herein provided. Assembly district leaders and associate 48 assembly district leaders shall automatically be members and shall have 49 the right to participate and vote in meetings of the county committee or 50 any subcommittee thereof. The county committee may provide by its rules 51 that the members of the state committee, elected in accordance with the 52 provisions of this chapter, shall possess the duties, powers and func-53 tions of an assembly district leader or an associate assembly district 54 leader. In such event the provisions of this section shall not apply to 55 the members of the state committee but upon ~~[his]~~ their election as a 56 member of the state committee, such person shall be deemed to have also

1 been elected as an assembly district leader or an associate assembly
2 district leader.

3 § 4. Section 2-122 of the election law, as amended by chapter 177 of 4 the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:

5 § 2-122. National party conventions; delegates, election. Delegates 6 and alternates to a national convention of a party shall be elected from 7 congressional districts, or partly from the state at large and partly 8 from congressional districts, as the rules of the state committee may 9 provide. Such delegates and alternates from the state at large shall be 10 elected by the state committee or by a state convention of the party, as 11 the rules of the state committee shall prescribe. If the rules of a 12 national party provide for [~~equal~~] representation [~~of the sexes~~] by 13 gender among delegates elected from districts, such district delegates 14 shall be elected separately by [~~sex~~] gender. District delegates and 15 alternates to national party conventions and delegates, and alternates, 16 if any, to such a state convention shall be elected at a primary. All 17 delegates and alternates to a national party convention shall be 18 enrolled members of such party. When any such rule provides for [~~equal~~] 19 representation [~~of the sexes~~] by gender, the designating petitions and 20 primary ballots shall list candidates for such party positions separate-21 ly by [~~sex~~] gender marker. In providing for such representation, the 22 party shall establish rules that provide for the ability of individuals 23 who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to serve as delegates 24 and which respect individuals' gender identity.

25 § 5. Paragraph c of subdivision 3 of section 5-504 of the election
26 law, as amended by chapter 659 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read 27 as follows:

28 c. The board of elections maintains, as a public record, at the appro-29 priate office of the board, a complete and current alphabetized list of 30 all registered voters, including voters in inactive status, which 31 contains next to each voter's name at least the following information:
32 address, town or city, assembly district where appropriate, election 33 district, registration serial number, party enrollment, date of regis-34 tration, [~~sex~~] gender, date of birth and, if the voter is in inactive 35 status, an indication of that fact.

36 § 6. Subdivision 7 of section 7-116 of the election law, as added by 37 chapter 173 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

38 7. Whenever a county board of elections or the board of elections in 39 the city of New York must conduct a primary election in the respective 40 county or the city of New York in which separate contests for [~~both male~~ 41 ~~and female~~] candidates of different genders for the same party position 42 are to be printed upon the ballots, and when rules require these posi-43 tions be listed separately on the ballot, the respective county board of 44 elections or the board of elections in the city of New York shall deter-45 mine by lot [~~whether to first print the contest for the male candidates~~ 46 ~~or the contest for the female candidates. After such determination, the~~ 47 ~~same order shall be used for all ballots printed by the board of~~ 48 ~~elections for the entire county or city of New York and for all contests~~ 49 ~~where there are elections separated by male and female candidates for~~ 50 ~~the same party position.~~] the order of the various gendered contests.
51 This lottery will be conducted separately for each election that is 52 separated by gender.

53 § 7. Section 3-102 of the election law is amended by adding a new 54 subdivision 18 to read as follows:

55 18. promulgate rules and regulations to provide for the ability of 56 individuals who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to run

1 for positions elected in gendered contests which respect the individ-
2 uals' gender identity. In no case shall the board of elections promul-
3 gate rules that are inconsistent with a system that requires individuals
4 filing for candidacy to self-indentify their gender marker as "M", "F", 5 or "X", requires all candidates to run a single race, and maintains 6 requirements for gender diversity.

7 § 8. This act shall take effect immediately.
