Introduced by M. of A. PAULIN, MAGNARELLI, LUPARDO, GALEF -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. COOK, GLICK, GUNTHER, PERRY, THIELE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to information on state boards

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 100-b to read as follows:

§ 100-b. Information on state boards. 1. As used in this section "board" means any board, commission, committee, council, task force or any similar state public organization, required to be established pursuant to state statutes or executive order, for the exercise of any function of state government and to which members are appointed or elected. "Board" does not include:

a. any informal advisory organization established exclusively by a state agency to advise the commissioner, secretary, or director of that agency on an informal basis;

b. any joint standing committee of the legislature or any committee of the assembly and/or senate composed entirely of members of the legislature;

c. any court;

d. the board of trustees of any institution of higher education financially supported in whole or in part by the state;

e. any entity of local government;

f. any public authority or public benefit corporation, a majority of whose members are appointed by the governor or serve as members by virtue of holding state offices to which they were appointed by the governor, or any combination thereof; and

g. any board of elections.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 2. The secretary of state shall maintain a compilation of the member-
2 ship and meeting information of all state boards, including state boards
3 established after the effective date of this section. The secretary of 4 state must keep such inventory in a public record available for 5 inspection, and updated annually on the department of state website.
6 Such compilation shall include, but not be limited to:

7 a. statutory language, executive order or other legal basis for the 8 establishment of such board;

9 b. public information including departmental affiliation, contact
10 address, phone number, and website;

11 c. a brief description of the purpose of the board and its statutorily
12 required duties, including required reports or other products;

13 d. the size of board membership, current member names, and any quali-
14 fications;

15 e. whether members of a board are eligible for payment of expenses or 16 other compensation in the performance of their duties as members of that 17 board;

18 f. dates and locations of all meetings held, and to be held within six 19 months; and

20 g. any other information the secretary of state may require.

21 3. The secretary of state shall update on an annual basis beginning
22 April first, two thousand twenty-three on the department of state
23 website, all vacancies, expired terms, those terms expiring within one 24 year, and the process for filling such vacancies on such boards.

25 4. Each board or the state agency that provides administrative support
26 or is otherwise affiliated with a board shall annually on or before 27 January first, submit to the secretary of state all information pursuant 28 to this section in a manner specified by the secretary of state to 29 facilitate the publication requirements of this section. Each
30 submission shall also include information on compensation and expenses
31 incurred in the prior and current fiscal years, as well as projected 32 costs for the coming fiscal year.

33 5. The secretary of state shall receive from any department, division,
34 board, bureau, commission or other agency of the state any information
35 and resources as will enable him or her to properly carry out the 36 purposes of this section.

37 6. On or before June first, two thousand twenty-three, the secretary 38 of state shall report to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the 39 temporary president of the senate, the chair of the assembly oversight,
40 analysis and investigation committee and the chair of the senate inves-
41 tigations and government operations committee on the status of the 42 inventory including but not limited to the number of boards reported and 43 verified; and the content and completeness of the information gathered 44 in accordance with the requirements of this section. The secretary shall 45 also report on any impediments to obtaining information.

46 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of April next succeeding 47 the date on which it shall have become a law.
