~~[1. The taking of an appeal by the defendant directly to the court of appeals, pursuant to subdivision one of section 450.70, from a superior court judgment including a sentence of death stays the execution of such sentence. Except as provided in subdivision two of this section, in no other case does the taking of an appeal, by either party, in and of itself stay the execution of any judgment, sentence or order of either a criminal court or an intermediate appellate court.~~

~~2.]~~ The taking of an appeal by the people to an intermediate appellate court pursuant to subdivision one-a of section 450.20, from an order reducing a count or counts of an indictment or dismissing an indictment and directing the filing of a prosecutor's information, stays the effect of such order. In addition, the taking of an appeal by the people to an intermediate appellate court pursuant to subdivision one of section 450.20, from an order dismissing a count or counts of an indictment charging murder in the first degree, stays the effect of such order.

~~[3. 19 ~~(b) whether the sentence of death is excessive or disproportionate to~~
20 ~~the penalty imposed in similar cases considering both the crime and the~~ 21 ~~defendant. In conducting such review the court, upon request of the~~ 22 ~~defendant, in addition to any other determination, shall review whether~~

24 ~~imposed in similar cases by virtue of the race of the defendant or a~~
25 ~~victim of the crime for which the defendant was convicted; and~~

26 ~~(c) whether the decision to impose the sentence of death was against~~
