AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to requiring employment opportunities to be posted on the department of civil service website

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The civil service law is amended by adding a new section 59-d to read as follows:

§ 59-d. Public posting of employment opportunities. The department shall make publicly available on its website all employment opportunities in the civil service of the state and information on obtaining employment with the state, including, but not limited to, vacancies in the competitive, non-competitive and labor jurisdictional classes, announcements for upcoming open-competitive and promotional examinations, test application instructions, and designations of which employment opportunities are eligible to be filled by individuals with disabilities and veterans with disabilities pursuant to section fifty-five-b and section fifty-five-c, as amended by chapter six hundred three of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-five, of this title. The president shall work in conjunction with the New York state department of labor and the governor's office of employee relations in order to effectuate the provisions of this section.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
