5 as a sexually motivated felony, where authorized pursuant to section 6 130.91 of the penal law; (v) defined in section 120.05 (assault in the 7 second degree) or 160.10 (robbery in the second degree) of the penal law
8 committed by a person fourteen ~~[or]~~, fifteen, sixteen, or seventeen 9 years of age but only where there has been a prior finding by a court 10 that such person has previously committed an act which, if committed by 11 an adult, would be the crime of assault in the second degree, robbery in 12 the second degree or any designated felony act specified in clause (i),
13 (ii) or (iii) of this subdivision regardless of the age of such person
14 at the time of the commission of the prior act; or (vi) other than a 15 misdemeanor, committed by a person at least ~~[seven]~~ twelve but less than 16 ~~[sixteen]~~ eighteen years of age, but only where there ~~[has]~~ have been 17 two prior findings by the court that such person has committed a prior 18 act which, if committed by an adult, would be a felony:

19 § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 301.2 of the family court act, as 20 amended by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the family court act,

29 of assault in the second degree, robbery in the second degree or any 30 designated felony act specified in paragraph (i), (ii), or (iii) of this 31 subdivision regardless of the age of such person at the time of the 32 commission of the prior act; (vi) other than a misdemeanor committed by 33 a person at least twelve but less than eighteen years of age, but only 34 where there have been two prior findings by the court that such person
35 has committed a prior act which, if committed by an adult, would be a 36 felony.

37 § 5. Subdivision 3 of section 304.1 of the family court act, as 38 amended by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the family court act,
39 the social services law and the executive law relating to raising the 40 lower age of juvenile delinquency jurisdiction from age seven to age
41 twelve and establishing differential response programs for children
42 under the age of twelve, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S.
43 4051-A and A. 4982-A, is amended to read as follows:

44 3. The detention of a child under ~~[thirteen]~~ ten years of age in a 45 secure detention facility shall not be directed under any of the 46 provisions of this article~~[, unless such child is at least ten years old~~ 47 ~~and is considered a juvenile delinquent pursuant to paragraph (ii) of~~ 48 ~~subdivision one of section 301.2 of this article]~~.

49 § 6. Subdivision 3 of section 304.1 of the family court act, as sepa-50 rately amended by section five of this act and a chapter of the laws of 51 2021 amending the family court act, the social services law and the 52 executive law amending the family court act and the criminal procedure
53 law relating to juvenile delinquency charges of violations in the family
54 court, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 7171 and A. 7706,
55 is amended to read as follows:

3. The detention of a child under ~~[ten]~~ thirteen years of age in a secure detention facility shall not be directed, unless such child is at least ten years old and is considered a juvenile delinquent pursuant to subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of this article, nor shall the detention of a child adjudicated solely for an act that would constitute a violation as defined in subdivision three of section 10.00 of the penal law, be directed under any of the provisions of this article.

§ 7. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 409-a of the social services law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the family court act, the social services law and the executive law relating to raising the lower age of juvenile delinquency jurisdiction from age seven to age twelve and establishing differential response programs for children under the age of twelve, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4051-A and A. 4982-A, is amended to read as follows:

(a) A social services official shall provide preventive services to a child and his or her family, in accordance with the family's service plan as required by section four hundred nine-e of this chapter and the social services district's child welfare services plan submitted and approved pursuant to section four hundred nine-d of this chapter, upon a finding by such official that (i) the child will be placed, returned to or continued in foster care unless such services are provided and that it is reasonable to believe that by providing such services the child will be able to remain with or be returned to his or her family, and for a former foster care youth under the age of twenty-one who was previously placed in the care and custody or custody and guardianship of the local commissioner of social services or other officer, board or department authorized to receive children as public charges where it is reasonable to believe that by providing such services the former foster care youth will avoid a return to foster care or (ii) the child is the subject of a petition under article seven of the family court act or by the probation service, to be at risk of being the subject of such a petition, and the social services official determines that the child is at risk of placement into foster care or (iii) the child is under the age of twelve, the child does not fall under the definition of a juvenile delinquent pursuant to ~~[paragraph (ii)]~~ subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court act and but for their age, their behavior would bring them within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article three of the family court act, and the social services official determines that the child is at risk of placement into foster care. Such finding shall be entered in the child's uniform case record established and maintained pursuant to section four hundred nine-f of this article. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations to assist social services officials in making determinations of eligibility for mandated preventive services pursuant to this subparagraph.

§ 8. Subdivision 1 of section 458-m of the social services law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the family court act, the social services law and the executive law relating to raising the lower age of juvenile delinquency jurisdiction from age seven to age twelve and establishing differential response programs for children under the age of twelve, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4051-A and A. 4982-A, is amended to read as follows:

1. As used in this title, the term "family support services programs" shall mean a program established pursuant to this title to provide community-based supportive services to children and families with the goal of (i) preventing a child from being adjudicated a person in need of supervision and help prevent the out of home placements of such youth or (ii) preventing a petition from being filed under article seven of the family court act, or (iii) ~~[to help reduce]~~ reducing future interaction with the juvenile justice ~~[and/or]~~ or child welfare ~~[system]~~ systems for children under twelve years of age⁷ who do not fall under the definition of juvenile delinquent pursuant to ~~[paragraph (ii)]~~ subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court act and whose behavior, but for their age would bring them within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article three of the family court act.

§ 9. Subdivision 1 of section 458-o of the social services law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the family court act, the social services law and the executive law relating to raising the lower age of juvenile delinquency jurisdiction from age seven to age twelve and establishing differential response programs for children under the age of twelve, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4051-A and A. 4982-A, is amended to read as follows:

1. Each local social services district, upon the approval of the office of children and family services, shall establish a program that implements differential responses to provide services to children under twelve years of age, who do not fall under the definition of juvenile delinquent pursuant to ~~[paragraph (ii)]~~ subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court act and whose behavior, but for their age, would bring them within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article three of the family court act. Such programs shall establish and utilize appropriate assessments and services for youth, in order to help reduce future interaction with the juvenile justice and/or child welfare systems. Such assessments shall be used to determine what, if any, services are needed, and such services shall utilize the least restrictive intervention protocols available. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall apply only to those cases involving children under twelve years of age, who do not fall under the definition of juvenile delinquent pursuant to ~~[paragraph (ii)]~~ subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court act and whose behavior, but for their age, would bring them within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article three of the family court act.

§ 10. Subdivision 4 of section 502 of the executive law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the family court act, the social services law and the executive law relating to raising the lower age of juvenile delinquency jurisdiction from age seven to age twelve and establishing differential response programs for children under the age of twelve, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4051-A and A. 4982-A, is amended to read as follows:

4. For purposes of this article, the term "youth" shall mean a person not less than twelve years of age and not more than twenty-two years of age, unless such youth is over the age of seven and less than twelve years and ~~[is considered]~~ is alleged to be or adjudicated a juvenile delinquent, as applicable, pursuant to ~~[paragraph (ii)]~~ subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court act.

§ 11. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 507-a of the executive law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the family court act, the social services law and the executive law relating to

1 raising the lower age of juvenile delinquency jurisdiction from age
2 seven to age twelve and establishing differential response programs for
3 children under the age of twelve, as proposed in legislative bills
4 numbers S. 4051-A and A. 4982-A, is amended to read as follows:

5 (a) Consistent with other provisions of law, only those youth who have 6 reached the age of twelve but who have not reached the age of twenty-7 one, unless such youth is over the age of seven and less than twelve
8 years of age and [~~is considered~~] has been adjudicated a juvenile delin-
9 quent pursuant to [~~paragraph (ii)~~] subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) 10 of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court act, may be 11 placed in the custody of the office of children and family services.
12 Except as provided for in paragraph (a-1) of this subdivision, no youth 13 who has reached the age of twenty-one may remain in custody of the 14 office of children and family services.

15 § 12. Paragraph (j) of subdivision 1 of section 840 of the executive 16 law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the family 17 court act, the social services law and the executive law relating to 18 raising the lower age of juvenile delinquency jurisdiction from age
19 seven to age twelve and establishing differential response programs for 20 children under the age of twelve, as proposed in legislative bills
21 numbers S. 4051-A and A. 4982-A, is amended to read as follows:

22 (j) (1) Development, maintenance and dissemination of written policies 23 and procedures pursuant to title six of article six of the social 24 services law and applicable provisions of article ten of the family
25 court act, regarding the mandatory reporting of child abuse or neglect,
26 reporting procedures and obligations of persons required to report,
27 provisions for taking a child into protective custody, mandatory report-
28 ing of deaths, immunity from liability, penalties for failure to report
29 and obligations for the provision of services and procedures necessary 30 to safeguard the life or health of the child; (2) establishment and 31 implementation on an ongoing basis, of a training program for all
32 current and new police officers regarding the policies and procedures
33 established pursuant to this paragraph; and (3) establishment of a 34 training program for police officers whose main responsibilities are 35 juveniles and the laws pertaining thereto, including children under 36 twelve years of age who do not fall under the definition of juvenile 37 delinquent pursuant to [~~paragraph (ii)~~] subparagraph (iii) of paragraph 38 (a) of subdivision one of section 301.2 of the family court act and 39 whose behavior, but for their age would bring them within the jurisdic-
40 tion of the family court pursuant to article three of the family court 41 act, which training program shall be successfully completed before such 42 officers are accredited pursuant to section eight hundred forty-six-h of 43 this chapter.

44 § 13. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same
45 manner as a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the family court act,
46 the social services law and the executive law relating to raising the
47 lower age of juvenile delinquency jurisdiction from age seven to age
48 twelve and establishing differential response programs for children
49 under the age of twelve, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S.
50 4051-A and A. 4982-A, takes effect; provided, however, that the amend-
51 ments to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 52 409-a of the social services law made by section seven of this act shall 53 not affect the expiration of such subparagraph and shall be deemed to 54 expire therewith.
