Introduced by M. of A. McDONALD -- read once and referred to the Committee on Small Business

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to a report by the division for small business

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 4 of section 170-c of the executive law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the executive law relating to a report by the division for small business, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 6642-A and A. 7500, is amended to read as follows:

4. Every state agency shall provide to the division for small business, created pursuant to section one hundred thirty-two of the economic development law, the following information covering the previous calendar year, annually by [~~March~~] July first following the effective date of this subdivision, and every [~~March~~] July first thereafter: (a) how many cure periods or other opportunities for ameliorative action were [~~offered~~] afforded pursuant to subdivision one of this section and how many small businesses made use of such options, (b) how many cure periods and other opportunities for ameliorative action were successfully completed and resulted in the avoidance of a penalty, (c) what, if any, guidance, information, and assistance with compliance was provided to small businesses issued pursuant to subdivision one of this section, and (d) the [~~average length~~] range of time granted by the state agency to correct first time violations and the type of violations that were ameliorated. The division for small business shall by [~~May~~] October first following the effective date of this subdivision, and every [~~May~~] October first thereafter, prepare a report compiling this information, by agency, and shall post this report on its website and shall provide a copy of such report to the governor, the speaker of the assembly and the temporary president of the senate.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the executive law relating to a report by the division for small business, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 6642-A and A. 7500, takes effect.
